WOOLEY COAT OF ARMS

The arms of the Wooley family here given are those found in the possessin of one Anthony Woley XII of RIBER, brother of Edward of GRICH in the visitation of Derbyshire 1634, & recorded in the College of arms. They are: "SABLE, a chevron VAIRE or and ______ between three madens heads argent, crined Or." The crest is "A demiman vest, azure face proper." In English of today, the shield is: Black w/ a chevron showing — — ___ fur in red + gold, and three maidens heads silver + gold, the demiman is shown in the oldest emblazonment as a man's head as herein shown. These arms had long been borne by the family as OROROD states that their arms in Cheshire before 1400 were: "A Chevron VAIR (or CONTRO VAIR) between three human heads couper at the neck, AFFRONTEE" which is the arms above described. The WOLLEY branch which remained in HOLLINGSWORTH later took other arms. A HATCHMENT of the WOLLEY arms on wood or canvas hangs in the north chancel of the Matlock church, too high to be ~~seen well~~ well seen in the dim light. (Compiled by Allen Darling by John Cox, Jr. who went to England 1930.

The original granting of these arms is not found in the College of Arms. In the great fire 1666, their records were carted to a place of safety, but ~~the~~ two small books were lost. The arms as shown on the pedigree of WOLLEY of RIBER do not appear as in the WOLLEY MSS. this is from BRYON S History being contained with some other arms of an intermarriage

WOLLEY, a hamlet of HOLLINGSWORTH, in MACCLESFIELD Hundred, Cheshire, gave name to the family as early as the 13th Century. This family is mentioned in the MASSIE CHARTULA? & in WATSON'S MSS. & often in original charters relating to the parish of HOLLINGSWORTH.

Following is aa exact copy (retyped because photocopies are of such poor quality) of the listing received by Frances FROBERG WOOLEY from the New England Historic Genealogical Society, 101 Newbury St., Boston, MA 02116 concerning the research records of Trella M. HALL:

INVENTORY

TRELLA M. HALL PAPERS

IN THE

NEW ENGLAND HISTORIC GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Content: Genealogies, records, notes, correspondence and photographs concerning the SWEET, HALL, HOWARD, LINDLEY, MELTON, NEWLIN and allied lines, A.D. 740-1985

Volume: 18 ft.

Provenance: Gift of Mr. Albert L. HALL, Larned, Kansas 6 February 1986

HISTORICAL NOTE

Trella M. HALL, 1910-1985, was the wife of Albert L. HALL, owner of a sand and gravel company in Larned, Kansas. Although not a member of the New England Historical Genealogical Society, Mrs. HALL became an acknowledged authority on the SWEET and numerous allied families. Her many corespondents around the country provided access to most regional sources. Mrs. HALL died leaving almost thirty years worth of accumulated information, which Mr. HALL donated to the Society at the suggestion of Mrs. Nell W. REEVES. This gift was received on 6 February 1986.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Trella M. HALL Papers, 1783-1985, contain genealogies, records, notes, correspondence and photographs concerning 625 familes, beginning with the SWEET family of Rhode Island, the papers also include large amounts of material on the HALL, HOWARD, LINDLEY, MELTON, and NEWLIN families in particular. Numerous others receive varying attention, noticeably BEARSE, BECK, EBERT, HUFFER, JONES, PYLE, STEELE, TRUESDALE, and WARNER, 1A

In addition to her extensive correspondence, Mrs. HALL assembled and circulated manuscript genealogies. Copies were sent back and forth to be annotated with information and corrected. Several of these draft genealogies came to include original as well as copies of photographs.

Mrs. HALL transferred this information to an alphabetical card file of approximately 35,000 entries, from A.D. 740 to 1985. Over 18,000 cards with supporting manuscripts pertaining to the SWEETS make up part one of the HALL Papers. The allied families take up a second part, with almost as many cards and their accompanying letters, genealogies, etc. These are followed by several hundred photographs. Most are individual portraits or family groups, although a few home sites are included. The photographic forms range from mid-nineteenth century tintypes to processes of the 1950´s.

WOOLEYS IN AMERICA

The following was typed by Frances FROBERG WOOLEY in 1990 as accurately as possible from a handwritten record done by Trella M. HALL of Larned, KS. The original can be seen at the New England Historic and Genealogical Soc. in Boston, MA where all Mrs. HALL'S research was donated by her family. The word "me" found in many of the listings evidently refers to where Mrs. HALL added and verified information. Initials T.M.H. refer to Mrs. HALL; initials I.H. refer to Mrs. C. B. (Imogene) HYSON and Mae E. refers to Mrs. F. V. (Mae) EVANS. C.A.R.L. refers to Mrs. C. A. REYNOLDS of California. Mrs. HALL'S pedigree encompases both the WOOLEY and SWEET lines as well as the HOWARD line and genealogists can be deeply indebted to her for her extensive and detailed research. Most of the photocopied handwritten manuscript is illigible -- researchers should, if at all possible, actually view the original manuscript for important information that may have been inadvertently omitted from this transcript. The questions marks "?" indicate areas where Mrs. HALL questioned information. The [ ] brackets indicate sections or words unable to be deciphered by the ~~typist~~ transcriber. ok

His (me?) state filing Box 658 letters of adm. to (son?) Vaniah WOOLEY, Phillip HOAG, Issac HAMMOND and Cornelius HAIGHT - no will or widow - my copy of this says Box 658 "Vaniah WOOLLEY - Jehu WOOLLEY his father states he died Oct. 10, 1812" which looks like the subject is Vaniah WOOLLEY, son of Jehu - and, if so, would have nothing to do with this man, as his son Vaniah didn´t die till 1842 but could be a son Jehu? who had son Vaniah 10-10-1812. By 1775 one Jehu WOOLEY was on tax list at Pawling, N.Y. and one had a farm at Beekman the same year. (Same man or is one a John?) One also signed association papers there. In 1790 Census of Beekman, a John (Jehu?) WOOLEY had 2-1-3 (son Vaniah, wife and dau. who was 10-16 with them? The male under 16 could be a son of theirs who died) and one in Clinton (both Dutchess Co.) N.Y. had 1-0-1, then 1800 in Washington Town a John WOOLEY was over 45 and with him a female and a male both 26-45 which seems to fit him well if he d. 1812 in Washington - wife already dead and he living with a son or dau. and husband - perhaps a son named John - this might be with the John and family in Beekman 1790 next door to Edward WOOLEY who had 2-2-3 and on the other side Augustine WOOLEY with 2-2-5 - if all are sons of Jehu, he could be living with anyone of them as all have 2 males over 16. Jehu and Abel seem to have named children for each other and both wit. marriages etc. in 9 Partners Quaker meetings.

One (Jehu or) John WOOLEY of Middleton, N.J. mar. 5-4-1751 Shrewbury, N.J. Phebe WOOLEY of Shrewsbury. A John and Phebe (HOAG) WOOLEY wit. a wedding 5-24-1787 at 9 Partners meeting.

No wife named so she was already dead - probably as after 1810 as in census! Unless this is a second wife Susanna who with a Pontius was deeding land in Burlington (Otsego) in 1801-08 to Peter WOOLEY and wife Sarah (this Peter is son of Peter 3, (Wm. 2, Emanuel 1). b. 1732 - so this Pontius is probably his bro. b. 1763 - T.M.H.) Because this Pontius WOOLEY is surely the one on Pawling (Dutchess Co.) tax list by 1772 next to Zephaniah and Matthew HOWARD - not there in 1774 and in 1779 was on tax list Washington (Dutchess) N.Y. - still there in 1790 with 2-1-3 and in 1800 he and wife were over 45 and with them a male and female 26-45 and a female 16-26 still here [? ?]. In 1810 wife and he both over 45 and family all gone. (Pontius, son of Peter 3 was b. 1763 and would be only 37 in 1800 so he can´t be this one in Washington 1800 and must be the one with wife Susannah in Otsego by 1801. Only one Pontius WOOLEY in 1790 N.Y. and there were no Peter WOOLEYS. Were they missing or on way to Otsego Co.?

One appears on the 1779 tax list of Pawling, N.Y. (Peter, John (Jehu?) and Abel there by 1777 - Peter and Abel by 1771) and in Charlotte Precinct of Dutchess Co. one wit. the will of Nicholas DE LAVERNE on 6-6-1780 (was there a family connection? Note: Pontius WOOLEY (bro.? of Joseph) has a dau. named Laverne! In 1790 a Joseph WOOLEY in Washington (Dutchess) N.Y. (near bro.? Pontius) had 5-1-4 (a mar. son or dau. and family included?) - still there in 1800 with males 0-0-1-1-1, females 0-1-1-0-2 and one other person (this Fanny MEHUND ? who had lived with me some years ago, acc. to his will)?

In 1800 there is a Jes. B. WOOLEY males 0-0-0-1-0, females 2-0-1 but can´t be him unless error in Census as no male over 45. If the one male is in wrong column, this could be him. Chances are he was with a son or dau. or Fanny MEHUND by 1810 and or so. In any case, Joseph WOOLEY made his will 6-6-1828, prvd. 12-26-1828 as of Washington (Dutchess) N.Y. wit. by John TITUS, Wm. DEVINE, and Joseph SHAW. Exec.: Stephen MOORE, Silas R. HAIGHT.

(Note: Vaniah WOOLEY, son of Jehu and Phebe mar. Rachel HAIGHT) and Phillip HOAG. (Note: Phebe WOOLEY, dau. of John and Phebe mar. Phillip HOAG - if this is same man and Joseph is bro. of Jehu - this is his nephew-in-law). No wife is named - but he leaves something to Fanny MEHUND "who had lived with him some years." Also named the children anf g.chn. of John below as his heirs.

Bible gives both places but no date. (Bible records - N.Y. Gen. & Biog. Soc. etc., from I.H. who asks, "Where can records of Old Stone Church at Dover be found?"

This is surely the Peter who was a taxpayer in Fishkill, N.Y. 1756, lived Tipples Farm 1758 - 1761 (18th Century Duitchess Co., N.Y. by Wm. W. REESE) and could be the Peter in Pawling by 1771 with Pontius and Abel WOOLEY (? his cousins?) all still there 1772 - Peter and Abel missing till 1771 when both are back - but neither are there 1779 nor does Peter appear on any 1790 N.Y. Census - possibly because he was enroute to or in Mohawk Valley town of Florida, (Dutchess) N.Y. - I.H.´s Times query says: or with sons [? City ?]. or ? Otsego Co. or perhaps he was in Canada during these periods? He is listed as a Tory (as was his bro. John) in histories of N.Y. Rev. Later skipped to Canada - swore loyalty to the King and get some land (one who pet. for land in Missiquoi [sp ?] (now Quebec) 10-27-1787 ???) - after 1790 returned to Mohawk Valley, N.Y. where he is in 1800 Census. Gershom MOTT went to Canada with the WOOLEYS.

His will Book J, pg. 409 Dutchess Co., N.Y. dated 12-20-1836, prvd. 4-29-1837 by exec. Silas SWEET and Edmund GERMOND. Wit.: Jonathan HUSTIS (see will of Vaniah WOOLEY #160) and Ann TALLMAN (a Darius (this is a SWEET name) TALLMAN next to Stephen SWEET, pg. 88 N.Y. 1790 had 3-2-3) (a Wm. in Fishkill had 1-0-3 in 1790) named wife, Martha, daus. Mary, Hannah, Charlotte, Sarah and Anne, dec´d. dau. Catherine´s son John W. RUSSILL and Guliema. husband James GERMOND.

Eseck WOOLEY was in Pawling (Dutchess) N.Y. 1790 Census with 1-1-7; was 3 doors away from a Stephen WOOLEY on one side and 2 doors from Zephaniah HOWARD and only one between him and John HOWARD, son of Zephaniah - who lived next door to his and Sylvester´s father-in-law, Theop. SWEET - next is John RIDER (a Thos. RIDER wit. will of Pontius WOOLEY 1813) then Robert SWEET, then 2 more of Zephaniah HOWARD´S sons, Pontius and Wm. and then a Wm. and Saml. RIDER.) He is still there in 1800 with 0 (b. 1790-1800), 0-1 (16-26 category, b. 1794 to 1784), 1 (26-45 b. 1755 to 1774) 0//-1-1 (16-26 category b. 1794 to 1784) 1 (26-45 b. 1755 to 1774) and is probably the Eseck there 1810 with 1-0-1-0-1//1-0-2-0-1 [tiny notes above these census figures illegible]. (Maybe this is the son and Eseck and wife are with him! Thus, the 3 females in 1800 could be his daus. and by 1810 they have had another boy and girl - but if his son was dead surely his children would have been mentioned!

Mar. 1778 (SOUL) Gen. -- Martha SOUL(E)

In 1790 not far away from Eseck was Abel WOOLEY and Timothy and Elizat SOULE and all prob. relatives.

Issue: order ? -(1790 Census shows 1 son and 6 daus. b. pre-1790 - 1800 Census shows 3 more daus. b. 1790 to 1800 - ? g.daus.??? 1810 of Enoch a s. and d. b. after 1800)

i. ? son WOOLEY, b. abt. 1774 - would be u. 16 in 1790 - barely 16 in 1800 and not quite 26 in 1810 - and d. pre 12-20-1836 without issue. (one u. 16 in 1790; one in 1800 was 16-26 and in same bracket in 1810 if this last one is error or Enoch is not Eseck!)

ii. Catherine WOOLEY, b. abt. 1779 to 81 - gone in 1800 and gone 1810 - d. pre 12-20-1830 (mar. pre-1810 _____ RUSSELL and had son, John W. RUSSELL, b. pre 12-20-1836

vi. Charlotte WOOLEY, b. abt. 1785/6, should be 10-16 in 1800, and in 1810 16-26 or gone and this 16-26 female wife of the son and children under 5 are theirs

(6 daus. b. pre-1790)

vii. Sarah WOOLEY, b. abt. 1778/9, maybe the 1st 2 female categories were reversed? One Sally WOOLEY mar. Sat. 11-30-1825 Jonathan HILLER at home of Eseck WOOLEY all of Pawling viii. Anne WOOLEY, b. abt. 1790/91 - under 10 in 1800, 16-26 in 1810 - named as 5th in father´s will

Then in 1820 Dover (Dutchess) N.Y. is Eseck WOOLEY with 1-1-1-1 (b. 1795 to 1799) -0//1-0-0-1-0 - can´t be kin if it´s correct - but could be the male 16-26 with Enoch in 1810. Where was Eseck, Sr. in 1820 amd 1830 if he one d. 1837 in Dutchess Co. and who was there in 1790 and 1800 at least? Maybe this 1820 one is him if the male 26-45 should be in next column - ditto for wife or they omitted? If latter this couple could be the son who was under 16 in 1790 barely 16 in 1800 and barely 26 in 1810 - b. 1774 he could have had the children shown in 1810 under Enoch and there in 1820 - like below!

Eseck WOOLEY in 1790 had 1 male under 16, 1 male over 16, and 7 females.
Eseck WOOLLEY in 1800 had 0-0-1-1-0//3-1-1-1-0 (2 daus. mar. and gone and a new one is 6
Enoch (Eseck?) WOOLEY in 1810 had 1-0-1-0-1//1-0-3-0-1 (2 daus. and 1 dau.-in-law - or 3 daus. and the male 16-26 is a son-in-law?)
Eseck WOOLEY in 1820 had 1-1-1-1-0//1-0-0-1 (or misplaced or is this Martha(, over 45, not 26-45 and dau.-in-law is dead!

(me! - in an earlier letter this same Samuel SWEET wrote to JOnathan´s son, Peleg SWEET and said, "Tell Joseph´s wife her bro. Vaniah Wooley, Phillip Hoag, Isaac Hemond & Cornelius Haight - no will or widow - My copy of this says Box 658 "Vaniah Woolley - Jehu Woolley his father states he died Oct. 10, 1812" which looks like the subject is Vaniah Woolley son of Jehu - and if so would have nothing to do with this man, as his son Vaniah didn't die till 1842 but could be a son Jehu who had son Vaniah d. 10-10-1812. By 1775 one Jehu Woolley was on tax list at ~~Beekman~~ Pawling, N.Y. + one had a farm at Beekman the same year (same man or is one a John?) one also Pawling association papers. In 1790 census of Beekman a John (Jehu?) Wooley had 2-1-3 son Vaniah, wife & dau. who was 10-16 in 1800 with them? The m. 16 could be a son of theirs who d.? and one in Clinton (both Dutchess Co.) N.Y. had 1 0 1 - then 1800 in Washington town a John Wooley was over 45 and with him a female & a male both 26-45 which seems to fit him well if he d. 1812 in Washington - wife already dead and he living with a son or dau. & husband - perhaps a son named John thus might be with the John & family in Beekman 1790 [redacted] next door to Edward Wooley who had 2-2-3 and on the other side Augustine Wooley with 2-2-5 - if all are sons of Jehu he could be living with anyone of them as all have 2 m. over 16. Wooley Coat of Arms.

The Arms of the Wooley family here given are those found in the possession of one Anthony Woley XII, of Riber, brother of Edward of Crich in the visatation of Derbysh 1634, and recorded in the College of Arms. they are; "Sable, a chevron vaire or and GULES gules between three maidens' heads argent, crined Or". The crest is "A demiman vest azure face proper" In English of today the shield is: Black with a chevron showing a certain fur in red and gold, and three maidens heads silver and gold. the demiman is shown in the oldest emblazonment as a man's head as herein shown. these arms had long been borne by the family, as Orerod states that their arms in Cheshire, before 1400 were : "A chevron vair (or contrevair) between three human heads couped at the neck, affrontee", which is the arms above described. The Wolley branch which remained in Hollingsworth later took other arms. A hatchment of the Wolley arms, on wood or canvas, Hangs in the south chapel of Matlock Church, too high to be well seen in the dim light.

CHARTULARY

The original granting of these arms is not found in the College of Arms. In the great fire of 1666, their records were carted to a place of safety, but two small books were lost. The arms as shown on the pedigree of Wolley of Riber do not appear as in the Wolley Mss. this is from Bryans History, being combined with some other arms of an intermarriage.

Wooley, a hamlet of Hollingsworth, in Macclesfield Hundred, Cheshire, gave name to the family as early as the 13th century. This family is mentioned in the Massie Chartular and in Watson's Mss. and often in original charters relating to the parish of Hollingsworth.

I. Radulf, Rafe or Ralph de Wolegh, of whom we know nothing except the name of his son, II. Ralph de Wolegh son of Ralph, mentioned 1294.

III. William de Wolegh, son of Ralph, quits, in 1308, to his eldest son Ralph Wolegh, all his movable and immovable goods. Sibil, widow of the grantor, confirms to his son Radulf this and other lands in Hollingsworth, the 6th year of Edward "the third after the Conquest" 1332.

IV. Ralph de Wolegh, in possession of the lands at Wolegh (as the place was then called) sold to his brother Richard, by fine (a form of real estate conveyance) tenements there (Place Rolls, 4 and 5 Edward III, 1331-2). Radulf or Ralph conveyed lands or rents to Johanne of Oldham in [illegible]. In 1335 he conveyed lands or rents to [illegible] Roberts, his mothers confirmation being in relation to these transactions. He conveyed lands in Hollingsworth, 10 Edward III 1336 with Richd (Richard de Woley, younger brother).

He purchased lands in Broadbottom, a hamlet in M[illegible] in the parish of Hattersley, Macclesfield Hundred, Cheshire, at some time [illegible] 1330 form from William de Hyde and Robert de H[illegible], in 35 Edward [illegible] settled these lands on his son Robert, with remainder to his other children. [illegible] lands were maintained in the family for six generations. His wife [illegible] known, his children according to Adam Wolley and Ormerod, were

V. Robert de Woley was living at Broadbottom, Cheshire, in 1369 when his brother William released to himall grounds, goods, tenements and chattels, but in the third year of Richard, "Second from the Conquest" (1379 or 1380) his widow, Agnes as quondam uxt (erstwhile wife, i.e. widow) conveyed land to some person whose name is not clear in the crabbed and contracted medeival Latin of the old parchment.

Adam showed in his pedigree a son of Robert, named

VI. Roger Woley, who was living in 1386-7 but when the Heralds made their Visitati of Derbyshire in 1634, the ancestry they recorded shows John (next herein given as a son of Robert. as, how ever the dates appear to require a generation at t time I am inclined to believe that Adam the Collector found an ancestor unknown to the Heralds of 1634.

VII. John Woley, son of Roger (according to Adam Wolley) lived at Broadbottom during during the reign of the three Henrys. Henry V succeeded Henry IV in 1413, and was succeeded by Henry VI in 1422. All that is known of John's wife is that she w called by name of Jane.

See Amo Fam of Heath Lineo

VIII William Woley sometimes called Oley, son of John, was living at Riber Hill, in t parish of Matlock, Derbyshire, in the time of Edward IV(1461-1483) and was living as late as 1514. The Wolley Collection includes a copy of an agreement, dated 22 Henry VII (1506) between William Oley of Riber and John [illegible] of Matlock. His marriage to Margaret daughter of John [illegible] and Mary Robotham of Riber, [illegible] have brought him there from Cheshire (no great distance). In his will, dated 1507 he mad wife Margaret and son John his executors. Riber is a hill top [illegible] looking to the south a broad area of nearly level land, now all grass, but formerly cultivated, and to the north the valley of the Derwent and Matlock bridge, where the village later developed. The Court Rolls show William as a juror in several trials from 1499 to 1514. His son

IX. John Wolley inherits his father's property, and in 1541 he grants to his son Anthony all his lands in Broadbottom which were of the estate of his father William. Nothing further is known of him, nor does he appear as a juror in the memorial courts. As his son does so appear as early as 1550, the presumption is that John was then deceased. he had Robert b 1528 – [illegible] [illegible] – His son

X. Anthony Wolley, of Riber, appears as a juror, 1550 to 1558. Among the State Papers, Domestic, of Queen Elizabeth's reign, the Master Rolls for 1559 show that Anthony Whole(Wolley) of Matlock "hath one plate cote, two long bowes, two sheffe of arrows two sculls and one black bill". The scull was a steel iron cap, a form of casque or helmet, fitting close to the head.

In his will, dated June 13, 1576 (see appendix) he directs "my bodye to be buried under my tomb whyche I have caused to be sett up in the in the Parish Church of Matlock". (pictures of this tomb in possession of Mrs C. B. Hynson and Mrs Margaret Kissam both descendants of this Wolley) This tomb stood directly in front of the pew between the nave and north aisle, at the chancel end.

In the rebuilding of the Church in 1872(the present being the fourth church on this spot) the tomb was removed and rebuilt against the west wall of the south aisle. It is about six feet long, two and a half feet wide, and two and a half feet high.

Riber Hall is on the highest point of the road which crosses Riber Hill. On a higher point, behind the Hall, stands "Riber Castle" built about 1860 by Mr. Smedley of the Hydropathic Baths, and is generally known as Smedley's Folly" he having died soon after this grandiose pile was finished. Addition to Riber Hall was made by Rev. John Chappell, who was rector of Matlock parish 1662 to 1688. Near it on the same road is the Manor House [illegible] building which once carried the memorial rights and privileges. (Pictures of this Manor House and Riber Hall in possession of Mrs C.B.Hynson and Mrs Margaret [illegible]) I did not learn of the Manor House until to late to visit it, but I was shown through Riber Hal by Miss Gregory whose father bought part of the building. In my researches in the Court Rolls, etc., I found reference to the Lord of Matlock Manor, but never saw his name. My conclusion is that a Wolley (perhaps William VII) built the Manor House because he was lord, and that a descendant built Riber Hall.

Bryan's History of Matlock states that after the death of Anthony Wolley XIII with out issue, his sisters sold the Riber House. A glance at the pedigree shows how this Anthony became the head of the family. The Riber House that he mentions was therefo most likely Riber Hall, as sold to Rev. Chappell. All that we know of the wife of Anthony X is that her name was Agnes. His children, six in all, whose effigies and enitals appear on his tomb, were , as given by Adam Wolley, as shown on the tomb-

XI. John Wolley of Allen Hill. A pedigree recorded in the College of Arms states that "Anthony Wolley of Riber, in the parish of Matlock died Sept 1576. He purchased the Estate of Allen Hill in the said Parish , of Richard Wendsley Esq Jan 31 1561 et settled it by deed 21 July 18 Elizab; (1575) on his son John". Allen Hill , Church, and Riber Hall all three on a straight line. Matlock appears in the Domesday Book. ~~1083~~ 1080 to 1086 as a Royal Manor of [illegible], with berewicks of Meslach, Sinitretone, Wodnesleie, Bonteshale, Ibeholm and Tanseslege. The first Manor House of Matlock was probably where the oldrectory now stands, and the Manor first held by A. de Matlock, rectors later of Matlock parish.

The date of John Wolleys birth is not known, but he [illegible] in 1560, accor to Adam Wolley's pedigree. date I think should be ~~[illegible]~~ 1587 as there was formerly a grit stone in the floor of the church six feet long, having incised a plain Latin cross, various initials, and the date [illegible] June [illegible]. This was suppose to be the cover of the tomb of John Wolley of Allen Hill, see [illegible] History page 19, of Matlock Church.

John's wife was Mary, daughter of Thomas Revell. The Court Rolls show that John with others, stood frank-pledge for some youths 22 Elizabeth (1580). At that per when a youth reached the age of fifteen, he had to take the equivalent of an oath of allegiance, with one or more substantial men vouching for him, hencethe name of frank-pledge.

John's children, so far as known were:

*Adam

John, from whom descended William Wolley the antiquary, who wrote a manusc history of Derbyshire about 1712. ~~[illegible] of Robert of [illegible]~~

Agnes.

XII. Adam Wolley, inherited the Allen Hill property from his father, who may have built the present kitchen, which has a stone floor, low beamed ceiling with small room above. the main portion bears a wall tablet, partly illegible, which appears to have "A.W."on it. this portion may have been built by Adam's son Anthony. the porch bears the date, 1687, which was the period of Adam, great grandson of THIS Adam.

Among the Wolley collectionof manuscripts is an agreement in Latin, dated 30 Sept 23 Elizabeth 1580) between John Wolley of Matlock and Henry Hayward of Darley, concerning the marriage of John's son Adam, to Henry's daughter, Grace, John settling on Adam all his lands and tenements, Adam to furnish meat, drink and shelter to his father during the [illegible]. In 1606 Adam received a legacy from his father-in-law. A [illegible] dated 1623 is from Doraethe and Thomas Flint, to Adam Wolley, and to [illegible] Wolley, his son and heir.

A wall tablet in the Matlock church reset in 1872, probably in a new place, bear the following inscription;

"Near this plase were interred the remains of Adam Wolley, of Allen Hill, in this parish, and of Grace his wife. He was born in the year 1558 and married at Parish Church of Darley, on the 1st day of Oct 1581, and after conti nuing in wedlock with said wife for so long period of 76 years, died in the mon of August 1657, in the 100 year of his age; she was born in the year 1559, and d in the month of July, 1669, aged 110, and for purpose of recording so extraordin but well authenticated an instance of longevity, and long continuance in the sta of wedlock, their great, great, great, greatgrandson, Adam Wolley, of this parish, Gent, caused this memorial to be erected in the year 1824". this last Adam Woll- the collector, died 1827, bequeathing to the British Museum 53 Vol of Mss.

Adam Wolley and other minors, took the frankpledge, John Bowne and others vouching for them, in Elizabeth's reign, but the yera is missing from the (Coyrt Roll's 224// 58/643) Adam was a juror at Matlock 1595, 1608 and 1610 as as Adam Jr. (having an uncle of same name who also served in the sameperiod)

He was assessed as a gentleman in 1610, for L5 and paid tax of 5 shillings in 1628 on an assessment of 3L paying 4 shillings; in 1642 on 3L. (Subsidy Rolls) a shilling then was equal to a large amount now.

Adam had three sons;

Anthony, heir ancestor of Adam the Collector.

*Edward

XIII. Edward Wolley, born at Allen Hill, being a younger son, had presumably the choice of the army or the Church. He chose the latter, but I do not find that he graduated at either Oxford or Cambridge. At the latter University one Edward Woolley matriculated as a pensioner in the Easter term, 1622 He was for more than a dozen years vicar of the Parish of Crich, this is a village with about a score of houses, none of which except the public house

Mrs. Fran Wooley

N. Ft. Myers, Florida 33917

Dear Fran,

Thank you so much for your very informative letter of Feb. 13, 1997. I am enclosing my booklet on the possbile ancestry of the Rhode Island Emanuel Woolley. Only two generations need to be "nailed down" to make it true for sure.

1. Was the Rhode Island Emanuel Woolley the son of the Rev. Edward Woolley, Vicar of Crich, Derbyshire, England?

and 2 - Was John Woolley's wife Mary Revell (daughter of a Thomas Revell) the daughter of Thomas Revell, lord of Carnfield Hall, and his wife Ann Eyre?

I think probably both of these generations are correct, but I have no absolute proof. Accuracy is necessary or the tree could fall "like a house of cards".

Please don't release the data on Mary Revell's ancestry until I get more proof of its correctness. I have several people in England working on that. Once, and if, I can get proof I hope to write an article for the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston on Mary (Revell) Woolley's ancestry.

In the next year or two I plan to do more research on Emanuel's background and parentage at the Newport, Rhode Island Historical Society, at the Rhode Island Historical Society and at the New England Historic Genealogical Society.

From the enclosure you sent me: -
Mentioned under Item X (Anthony Wolley) that he left a will dated June 13, 1576 (see appendix). Do you have a copy of that Will or that "sppendix"? I would surely like to see that. Do you have his wife Agnes' maiden name?

XI - John Wolley - Do you have a copy of the pedigree that is recorded in the College of Arms? I'd certainly like to see that.

XII - Adam Wolley - Do you hvae a copy of the Agreement from the Wolley manuscripts that was between John Wolley and Henry Heyward concerning the marriage of John's son Adam to Grace Hayward? I'd also like very much to see that. Also, is there a copy of the legacy left to Adam Wolley by his father-in-law Henry Hayward?

Thank you so much for sending the pages of the Woolley Lineage from the Trella Hall collection. We must keep in touch on all of this.

Best regards,

Jack Hutchinson

The family was Quaker and related to the William, Hugh and Richard Hartshorne family of Hathern in Leicestershire, very near Derbyshire. The Hartshorne family also had become Quaker. There is a village of Hartshorne in Derbyshire. John Woolley's (#5 above) last will and testament speaks of cousin William Hartshorne.

* These names tie to the parents and grandparents of the Derbyshire Emanuel Woolley. His age also seems to be correct, to be the same Emanuel.

+ These are names of siblings of the Derbyshire Emanuel Woolley.

just forget it.

We've spent the last few days back + forth to Pratt - our dau. Mahala had a miscarriage + was a pretty sick girl for a while - she is alright now thank goodness + will go home to-day. Both her girls have bad colds - one near phnemonia stage so that a worry too.

Company coming in May so if you dont hear for a while you can guess at some of the reasons.

All fine here and hoping you can say the same - love

TRELLA,

P.S. forgot to give more Pole notes I've got retaken from English Histories - In Reign of Henry VI (1422-71) Wm. de la Pole, Duke of Suffolk was beheaded for conspiring with Cardinal Beaufort (uncle of the Duke of Gloucester) and Margaret of Anjou w. of Henry VI

From gen. charts of royal families

Remember the fam. tradition my folks knew of being related to Mary Queen of Scots - the conn. had from Howard side of the house - Henry VIII's 5th wife was Catherine Howard

The Royal Descents of 600 Immigrants to the American Colonies or the United States Who Were Themselves Notable or Left Descendants Who Were Notable in American History, by Gary Boyd Roberts (Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., 2004. ci + 811 pp., index. Hardcover, $75.00).

Since the publication in 1993 of the author's Royal Descents of 500 Immigrants, he has made many additions, subtractions, and corrections to his work. As a result, Royal Descents of 600 Immigrants is state-of-the-art for royal descents of American colonists who left descendants here — which presumably is the interest of the majority of readers. For most immigrants only the "best" descent is included, the descents being in skeletal form (no dates, usually no places). A list of sources and frequent commentary follow each descent (or group of descents) for review and evaluation.

The author has included several appendices to his introduction, including "immigrants new to this edition," "immigrants dropped from this edition," and "speculative descents" — all with commentary. This book includes several descents that have not previously been published. For New England these include ones for Abigail (Brewster) Burr; Thomas Lechmere; Increase Nowell; Rose (Stoughton) Otis; James Taylor; Sarah (Woodward) Henchman and her sister Frances (Woodward) Oxenbridge; Emmanuel Woolley; and Peter Worden. Descendants of Alice (Freeman) (Thompson) Parke and Rev. William Sargent will be eager to see the new Carolingian descent at pages 540–41, 557–59. Royal descents for various presidents, for First Lady Laura Bush, and for two Democratic candidates for the 2004 election (Howard Dean and John Kerry) are included.

Not surprisingly, some of this information has been included in the author's columns, articles, and books since 1993; nevertheless, it is very useful to have this all in one book.

The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, Disk 1, 1870–1899 (New York: The New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, 2003. CD-ROM. $32.00 for NYG&BS members and libraries, $42.00 for all others; prices include shipping). Order from The NYG&BS, 122 East 58th Street, New York NY 10022; website www.newyorkfamilyhistory.org.

The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record is the most recent major genealogical journal to appear on CD-ROM. The website of The New York Genealogical and Biographical Society announces that it plans to issue several more CDs of the Record during 2004. These CDs are well worth the price since they are every-word searchable using Adobe Acrobat. In comparison, the CDs of major journals issued in the 1990s were searchable only by name (not place or subject or other words).

Emmanuel
Woolle

The careful researcher will want to review each CD of the Record as Jean Worden's composite index to the Record on CD which was issued i 2003 and reviewed in the Register a year ago. In that review we pointed this CD index will supplement the Record on CD because:

- The inclusion of years in the index CD allows the reader to fo relevant entries.
- Since lists of children in compiled genealogies in the Record have omitted the surname of the children, it may be easier to visually scan th CD.
- Variant spellings of surnames can be a major problem in New research, especially for Dutch and French surnames. While each CD Record can be searched using a wildcard, it may be easier to visually s index CD for alternative spellings and the "see also" entries.

However, searching each CD of the Record is necessary because every-word searchable and because the index CD does not include every na explained in the review).

The contents of the first thirty years of the Record are similar to genea journals today, with compiled genealogies, source material, queries, not book reviews. Many of the authors achieved impressive results with panoply of sources available to us today — although the 1911 fire at th Capitol in Albany had not yet taken place. As Harry Macy, Editor of the points out in the Introduction: "Many of the very early writers did a rem competent job when genealogical standards were only vaguely conceived, many cases their contributions are still the only published accounts o families."

Every New York collection and researcher should have this valuable CI

Genealogies of the Families and Descendants of the Early Settlers of Wate Mass., and Watertown Records (Boston: NEHGS, 2002, CD-ROM. $49.99

The 1860 edition of Bond's Watertown, as it is familiarly known, was t book published by the New England Historic Genealogical Society, yet never had an index. On this CD it is fully searchable. On the same disk ar volumes of Watertown records, covering the years 1634 to 1829 and in what are now the towns of Waltham and Weston.

Explore this CD by clicking on the plus signs on the left hand scre example, clicking on "Bond's Watertown" reveals that there is a preface second edition as well as four appendices. Another example: the "Record B the Pastors: 1686 to 1819," beginning with marriages in 1686, is found in four of the Watertown records.

It is always wise to verify such early work. Henry Bond was a th researcher, but he lived in Philadelphia and often employed others. Nevert consulting Bond is always a good idea, even for families in other areas th

Dear Fran,

I appreciated getting your information and am always glad to compare notes with another geneologist. By comparing notes it is possible to catch obvious errors and to add to what information one has. You spotted an error in my records right away when I had Ruth Woolley b. 1701, married to Jacob Lippincott about 1665. I also had him married to Grace, dau. of Emmanuel born 1666 which was correct. When you have so many families using the same names in each generation, it is easy to make mistakes unless you are very careful. It makes for a lot of confusion as you well know.

You asked where I got the marriage date of Hannah Wooley to George Allen. The notes I have on her reads: Married to her first cousin George Allen in1739, which is incorrect, Shrewsbury, Monmouth, NJ. Also she is called Hannah, the wife of George Allen, in the will of her father, Jan. 3, 1728/9, and Hannah Little, in the will of her mother, Nov. 3, 1732. She was born in 1688 and George Allen in 1678. She married John Little sometime before 1732. So your date of Abt. 1704 is more like it. On your family group record for Edward Wooley and Lydia Allen, you have her parents as George Allen and Hannah. I have her father as Ephraim, as you stated from "Scudder Fam. of Trenton" by Moses Bigelow. Could there be a confusion between these two George Allen couples in your records?

I think correct

Hannah Rachel Norris who was married to John P. Wooley, was from a different Norris family than my Norris ancestor. I am not sure when these two Norris families come together, but I think it goes back to England somewhere. You have John P. Wooley's parents as George Wooley and Elinor Craig. Who were their parents? I don't have any Wooley dates as late as the 1800's in the Wooley line. You said that your Wooley ancestors came through Emmanuel, to Edward, to Adam. But you lost me as to how they tie in with John P. and George. As I mentioned in my last letter, my Wooley descent comes from Emmanuel, to William, to Peter I, Peter II, and then to Elizabeth who married Joseph Norris, son of Richard.

I havn't had a chance to check the death records for Isabell Sabrina Daniels Mack here yet but I will get the information to you if I can find anything.

I appreciate hearing from you and like you say. Keep in touch!

Sincerely,

Ray Lundquist

Dear Lita Karlsrand,

Read your entry in the April newsletter of the Mensa Genealogy SIG.

I can't be of much help but I can tell you that the last name on your list, Wooley, almost certainly originates in Derbyshire.

Many English names are distinctly regional in distribution, even being localised to certain districts of one county. Wooley, or its variant spellings, is very much a Derbyshire name, spreading to the fringes of neighbouring counties, Nottinghamshire, Leicestershire, Staffordshire and Lincolnshire.

A good place to start would be the Mormon IGI records for the name, starting with Derbyshire. The County Record Office, Matlock, Derbyshire, will have these and let you have printouts.

The Derbyshire FHS. will be another good source; the Secretary's address, is, 15 Elmhurst rd., Forest Town, Mansfield, Nottingham, NG19 OEU

Good luck in your research,

Yours sincerely,

Graeme J. Heldreich.

den, 1634–1635. Printed fac-similes of these entries were sent to me by a friend in England, April 16, 1886, and they are reproduced in the margin on the preceding page.

The writer just quoted, noting the fact that Harvard was admitted to the freedom of the Company before eight years had expired, says: "The explanation is that he had fulfilled the term of seven years, which was all that the use and custom of the city of London required."

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes presented to the Massachusetts Historical Society, February 10, 1887, similar printed facsimiles of both of these entries. See Proceedings Mass. Hist. Soc., 2d series, vol. III. p. 221. The record of Thomas Harvard being bound an apprentice is found in the Register of Apprentices Bound, 1606–1641.

An autograph of Thomas Harvard and another autograph of his brother John, have recently been discovered attached to a document dated July 25, 1635, found among the muniments of the Hospital of St. Katherine near the Tower of London. See REGISTER, ante, pp. 109–110.—EDITOR.]

KATHERINE WILSON, wife of Alexander Wilson of St. Martin le Grand of London, taylor, 25 November 1583, proved at London 9 January 1583. I give and bequeath unto Alexander Wilson my only husband that part, parcell and portion that I, Katherine Wilson, had given and bequeathed unto me by my own uncle Edmond Grindall, late Archbishop of Canterbury deceased, with all my right and interest that I, the said Katherine Wilson, had or by any ways might have had hereafter to whatsoever part or parcell and portion of the residue of my said uncle's will and goods by any ways or means howsoever, in as large and ample manner as it doth appear in his will more plainly, and make executor of my said will my said husband Alexander Wilson. and trustee of the Cincinnati Institute of Fine Arts (for which a campaign in 1928 under his chairmanship and direction raised an endowment fund of nearly three million dollars), chairman of the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, and a director of the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific Railway Company and the University of Cincinnati.

Among his clubs were the Literary Club, the Commercial Club, the University Club, the Cincinnati Club, the Queen City Club, and the Cincinnati Country Club. He was a Republican and an attendant of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

LOUIS GORDON HAMERSLEY, A.B., of New York City, elected a Pilgrim Tercentenary member 4 February 1920, was born at Newport, R. I., 20 July 1892, son of James Hooker and Margaret Willing (Chisolm) Hamersley, and died at his summer home at Southampton, Long Island, N. Y., 2 June 1942.

He traced his descent from William^1 Hamersley (son of Thomas and Anne (Turner) Hamersley and great-grandson of Sir Hugh Hamersley, Lord Mayor of London in 1627), an officer in the British Navy, who was born in England in 1687, married ——— Van Brugh, and died 2 August 1752, through Andrew,^{2} 1725–1819, of New York City, whose wife was Margaret Stelle, daughter of Gabrielle Stelle, Louis Carré,^{3} born about 1767, married Elizabeth Finney of Virginia, and died 4 November 1853, John William,^{4} 1808–1889, of New York City, whose wife was Catherine Livingston Hooker, and James Hooker,^{5} his father, who was born in New York City 25 January 1844, married Margaret Willing Chisolm (born in New York City 17 October 1863, daughter of William Edings and Mary Ann (Rogers) Chisolm), and died 15 September 1901.

The subject of this memoir attended Browning's School in New York City, was prepared for college at St. Mark's School at Southborough, Mass., and entered Harvard College, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1920 (as of 1916).

In June 1916 he served on the Mexican Border as a member of Battery A, First Massachusetts Field Artillery, and on his return went to France as an ambulance driver, American Field Service, Vosges Detachment, serving from 2 December 1916 to 2 June 1917. On 11 June 1917 he was admitted as civilian to the Officer's Artillery School at Fontainbleau, and was graduated 3 September 1917 as aspirant.

On 2 October 1917 he was commissioned first lieutenant, Field Artillery, United States Army, and assigned to Battery E, Sixth Field Artillery, First Division. Following his tour of duty with the Army of Occupation in Germany he was discharged in France on 14 April 1919. He took part in the engagements at Cantigny and in the Marne-Aisne, the Saint-Mihiel, and the Meuse-Argonne offensives.

In 1919 he entered the employment of the United States Trust Company of New York City, where he studied the mechanics of estate management. A year later he resigned his position to take up the management of his own affairs.

An outstanding sportsman, he was especially fond of polo, sailing, and cruising. In 1924 he entered his speed boat Cigarette Jr. in the 150-mile sweepstake run on the Detroit River and finished second. In June 1926 his schooner Countess won the prize for the first all-amateur ever to finish in the Bermuda race, and three months later he won the President's Cup on the Potomac River with Cigarette V, an all-metal racing boat. In a gasoline power boat he made many cruises along the Eastern Seaboard, even visiting Cuba and Jamaica. In 1926 he took an extensive trip around the world.

He was a trustee of St. Andrew's Church at Southampton, the Marine Museum of the City of New York, the New York Historical Society, the Museum of the City of New York, and Browning School in New York City; director of the National Information Bureau, Inc., of New York City, the American Field Service Fellowship, and the First Avenue Association; a member of the board of managers of the Home for Incurables and the Seamen's Church Institute; a member of the Advisory committee of the Samaritan Home for the Aged; and past commander of First Division, Lieut. Jeff Feigl Post 247, the American Legion.

Among his many clubs were the Army and Navy Club of America, the Automobile Club of America, the Harvard Clubs of Boston and of New York City, the Meadowbrook Club, the New York Yacht Club, the Port Washington Yacht Club, the Sag Harbor Yacht Club, the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club, the Rockaway Hunt Club, the Riding Club, the Sleepy Hollow Country Club, the Union Club, and the Tuxedo Club.

1667. cording to his discretion, and the demerrit of the said person so offending.

May 19. At the sitting of the Councill, May 10th, 1667.

Whereas, information is given to the Councill of eminent danger concerning some treacherous designs of the Indians, whereby (if it should take place) the King may lose his interest, and his good subjects their lives, whereof the Councill is very sensible. Bee itt therefore enacted by the authority of the present Councill, that if any Indian men or boys (exceeding the yeares of sixteen) bee found on this Island after proclamation hereof, itt shall be lawfull for any person or persons to apprehend them, and bring them before some of the Magistrates in this Island, then and there to be dealt with as malefactors, unless such as have a licence from vnder the hand of the Governor or Deputie Governour, or the hands of two Assistants in this Island. And this act to stand in force vntill the Councill shall see cause to repeale itt.

Indians to depart the Island.

ffarthermore, the Councill being very sensible by severall informations from other parts of the country, that there have lately been severall conspiracies and plots by the Indians against the English in these parts, and having just cause to suspect that wee may bee suddenly assaulted by the Dutch and French, his Majesties professed enemies; and itt lying much on our hearts to defend the King's interest, and the preservation and liberties of his Majesties good subjects here residing; his Majesty being gratiously pleased in his last Royall graunt to committ the care of the government of the Collony (in the Generall Assembly's absence) unto the Councill, vpon due consideration whereof, doe find itt needfull that the inhabitants of the place should hould together with an vnanimous consent and full resolution to secure each other.

Bee it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this present Councill, that no man or boy exceeding the yeares of sixteen, shall at any time pass from off this Island vpon the penaltie of contempt, without a licence from under the hand of the Governor or Deputie Governor, or under the hands of two Assistants in this Island. Bee itt therefore ordered further, by the authority abovesaid, that proclamation hereof be made, and to stand in full force vntill the Councill find cause to repeale itt.

English not to leave the Island.

And whereas itt is too vsuall a custom for persons when they espie any shipp or vessells near approaching as to anchor on or about the Island, presently to pass aboard her, which act may be very inconvenient in divers respects, both to his Majesties interests, and the great hazard of the people here inhabiting. The Councill takeing it into serious consideration, have thought fitt and by these presents do enact, that no person or persons, that shall bee vpon the Island or Islands neare to that Island shall presume by any way or meanes to goe or pass aboard to any shipp or vessell, vntill the master of the said shipp or vessell hath presented himself before the head officer of the towne, vnder the penaltie of contempt, without speciall licence from the Governor or Deputie Governor, or two Assistants: and this act to stand till farther order bee taken thereon or repealed.

Men not to board vessels.

May the 10th, 1667.

By the Governor and Councill att Newport, the 13*th and* 14*th of May*, 1667.

Orders given forth to the Constables to make search for gunns and amunition. Vpon their return it was ordered, that in his Majesties name all those that had powder, lead and shott, should have it forth coming upon all demands.

1667. Whereas, the Governor and Councill of the towne of Newport being mett the 29th of the first month, 1667, to take care that the place with respect to the serving of the King's interest and oure owne might bee putt in a suitable posture of deffence against a common adversary, as also that other defects which might prove hazzardous to the same might be forthwith supplyed, but could not at that time come to such mature results therein, as a matter of such concernment doth require, the said Governor and Councill being mett this 28th of the 3d month, 1667, to resume the former debate, after serious consideration and advice, have resulted and concluded as followeth :

Rate. 1. ffirst, that our Honoured Gouernour and Deputie Gouernour be desired to make enquiry where the obstruction lies that the former rate, made for the paying for our Charter as it relates to the towne of Newport, is not yett levied, and to hasten the levying and taking thereof, itt lying as a block in our way to our further proceedings.

Amunition. 2. That Lieut. Joseph Torrey, and Ensigne John Bliss Constable Carr, and the Clarke of the band be required forthwith to goe from house to house throughout the towne of Newport, the villages and precincts thereof, and to take a precise and exact account of all the armes, amunition and weapons of warr each person is furnished with, or hath in his house to spare to others, and in what condition with regard to service the same is in : and itt to returne unto the Gouernor. And also to call vpon such as have deffects, that they may be supplyed in the place forthwith, under the penaltie the law hath provided, to repaire to such persons as may supply them.

Repair arms. 3. That the Honoured Gouernour bee desired to give forth his warrant to Capt. Rich. Morrise, Geo. Halsey, John Audly, Emanuell Wooly, Henry Stevens, Gabriell Hick, and others that are skilled therein, to charge them vnder the penaltie the law hath provided, to sett against all excuses, and forthwith require all such armes, and Prison and pound and stocks. 4. That the deputy Governor, Mr. Wm. Jeoffrey, Mr. Edw. Smith, Mr. Jo: Coggeshall, Mr. Pet: Easton, John Gould, Dan: Gould, Jos: Clarke and Lft. Joseph Torrey, being the Committee appointed by the towne to make a rate for the levying of one hundred and fiftie pounds for the deffence of the place against a common enemy, as also for the supplying of other deffects in the towne relating to the prison, pound and stocks, as also to the mounting of the great guns, &c., be desired, and also required, with all expedition, to perfect and compleat the same, in order to prevent such fines and forfeitures ; and also such mischiefs and miseries as may happen for the want of the same ; and it being compleated, to present it forthwith to our Honored Gouernour.

Rate. 5. That the aforesaid rate being thus compleated, and brought into the Gouernor, he be desired forthwith to give forth his warrant to the Serjant, strictly requiring him with all possible speed that may be, by virtue thereof, to ask, demand, and in case of refusall, by distraint to levie, and take every such sum or sums as he shall find, exprest in the said rate, and itt or them forthwith to return into the towne treasury, that it may be in a readiness to improue for the vse abouesaid.

Mount great guns. 6. That Capt. Jo: Cranston, Lft. Joseph Torrey, and Mr. John Clarke, be required with all possible speed that may bee, to mount the great guns vpon such carriages, as whereby they may be easily conueyed from place to place for the better improuing of the same for the security and defence of the place, and the people therein.

To the sixth particular the Deputye Governor sayth he cannot consent as to command.

Prison. 7. That Mr. Wm. Coddington, Mr. Rich. Tew, Mr. Wm. Reap, Wm. Dyre, Mr. Jo: Coggeshall, Mr. Peter 1675. thereof in the said law), bearinge date in the yeare 1647, said saith, the probate of wills, was to be before the head officer, which said name (in the said law), by the present constitutions is extinct, and by reason of difference of opinion probation of wills is deferred; and for that the thinge is as weighty as to make a will for the dead, dyinge without a will, and the said supposed head officer may be in his owne case; therefore be it enacted, that the power of probation of wills shall be in the Towne Councills or major part of each, to which it doth belong.

The Towne Councills to have the probation of wills.

Voted, that the Clerke of this Assembly shall have for his attendance at this Assembly the sum of twenty shillings from the Generall Treasury; and tenn shillings from each towne, for coppys of the Assembly's acts under the seale of the Collony.

Voted, this Assembly is dissolved.

Voted, Whereas Mr. John Sanford, Clerke of the Assembly, being by some occasion absent, the Assembly did see cause to appoint Mr. John Foanes to supply his place during his absence.

1681

Voted, Emanuall Woolly having petitioned this Assembly, that whereas he was bound in a bond of recognizance for his good behaviour, and appearance at the last Generall Court of Tryalls, and he not appearing at the time aforesaid, according to order, his said bonds being forfeitted, did humbly desire this Assembly to remitt the same; and they takeing it into consideration, doe remitt the forfeiture.

Voted, Whereas there was a petition presented by Capt'n Arthur Fenner, subscribed by seven persons of Providence and Warwick (to this Assembly), this Assembly did see cause to suspend the answering thereof, untill their next sitting in June.

Voted, This Assembly takeing into consideration the matter to them presented by two Assistants of the Towne Councill of Providence, concerning the late rash, turbulent and violent behaviour of Benjamin Hernden, Jun'r, of said Providence, towards an Indian man, as he upon his examination the 25th of Aprill did acknowledge, that he being lately in the woods belonging to the said towne, and there seeinge an Indian man, did shoot with his gun at the said Indian with an intent to kill him; and for noe other cause (as he himselfe confesseth) but for that the said Indian would not obey his word, and stand at his command; who indeed had noe authority nor just cause soe to command, which said Indian, notwithstanding the said violence to him offered, did not then seek to revenge himselfe by the like returne, although he alsoe had a gun, and might have shot at Hernden again, if he had been minded soe to have done, but went peaceably away; only useing some words by way of reproofe unto the said Hernden; blaming him for that his violence and cruelty, and wondering that English men should offer soe to shoot at him and such as he was, without cause.

This Assembly haveing seariously considered and weighed the matter, doe see cause, for the prevention of such insolent and outrageous actions for future time, to enact, and hereby it is by this Assembly and the authority thereof enacted, that all his Majesty's subjects in this Collony are hereby required to behave themselves peaceably towards the Indians in like manner as before the warr; and noe person or persons shall presume to doe any such unlawfull acts of violence, upon their perrills.

Voted, Ordered by this Assembly, that a copy of this act be forthwith drawne by the Generall Recorder, and the seale of the Collony affixed, and sent unto the towne of Providence, and there to be published with all expedition.

Voted, The Deputy Governor, Mr. John Whipple, Mr. Wm. Wodell, and Mr. John Foanes, are appointed a Committee to examine and auditt the Generall Treasurer's accounts, and to settle them. The time of their first meeting shall be the 20th day of June, which will be on the second day of the weeke; and any two or more of the persons nominated appearing, have hereby power to inspect and settle the foresaid accounts with the Treasurer; and are first to meet at his house, and to make their returne to the next sitting of this Assembly.

This Assembly is adjourned untill the last Wednesday save one, in June next, being being the 22d day of said month; except any emergency should require the callinge thereof, which is left to the discretion of the Governor, or in his absence the Deputy Governor, to convene the said Assembly, if occasion in the interim of time require it.

June 23d.

According to the aforesaid adjournment, the Assembly called and satt.

Voted, Upon the petition of John Clarke, of Newport, for moneys due to him for service done at Westerly, in the time of his brother, Joseph Clarke's imprisonment at Connecticut, this Assembly agree and order the said John Clarke the sum of thirty-five shillings, in or as money, to be paid by the Generall Treasurer.

Voted, In answer to the petition of Walter Clarke, Deputy Governor, Caleb Carr, Assistant, Mr. Joseph Clarke, and Mrs. Mary Cranston, for reliefe concerning moneys disbursed by them in behalfe of the Collony, be it enacted by this Assembly and the authority thereof, that the sixty pounds due to Mr. Stephen Arnold, upon the account of Capt'n Houldon and Capt'n Greene, which was engaged to said Mr. Arnold by the abovesaid petitioners and severall others, as appeares by an act of the

By Mrs. IRENE CYNTHIA GOULD of Wellesley Hills, Mass.

THREE men named Woolley* are found in New England about the middle of the seventeenth century, but as yet no records have been found that show them to be related to one another. Christopher Woolley was at Concord, Mass., about 1646, and he and his descendants form the subject of this article. Robert Woolley was at Fairfield, Conn., 1649–1653, and removed to Southampton, Long Island, where his name appears on the list of 1657. He married Ann Woodruff, daughter of John and Ann of Southampton. Their children were: 1. Robert. 2. John. 3. Joseph. 4. Ann. 5. Elizabeth. 6. Phœbe. 7. Mary. 8. Hannah.† Emanuel Woolley was on the list of freeman at Newport, R. I., in 1655, and in 1667 he was "ordered to repair arms." He received a grant of land in Monmouth, N. J. He was a member of the Society of Friends. He married Elizabeth ——— Isbell. Their children were: 1. Adam, born in Mar. 1654; married Mary ———. 2. Edward, born in Dec. 1655; married Leilia ———. 3. Elizabeth (twin), born in Nov. 1657. 4. Mary (twin), born in Nov. 1657. 5. John, born in Oct. 1659; married Mary Potter. 6. William, born 15 Sept. 1662. 7. Ruth, born 12 Oct. 1664; married John Tucker. 8. Grace, born in Apr. 1666. 9. Joseph, born in May 1668; died in 1691.‡

1. CHRISTOPHER[1] WOOLLEY, of Concord, Mass., weaver, died 28 Jan. 1700/1. He married first, 26 Feb. 1646/7 (Concord records), URSILLA WODELL, who died 13 June 1674; and secondly, 10 Apr. 1677, MARY HOW, who died 26 Dec. 1695, widow of William of Concord.

He owned land adjoining William Taylor and John Smedley in the east quarter of the town, which he sold to Joshua Brooks in 1663 (Middlesex Deeds, vol. 9, page 183). When Richard Griffin of Concord died, 5 Apr. 1661, he left "40 shillings in cloas to Christopher Woolley," and owed said Christopher Woolley two hundred pounds; and these facts apparently contradict the statement made by Savage (Genealogical Dictionary, vol. 2, page 314) that Richard Griffin gave to Christopher Woolley most of his property.

CHRISTOPHER WOOLLEY OF CONCORD, MASS., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By Mrs. IRENE CYNTHIA GOULD of Wellesley Hills, Mass.

THREE men named Woolley[*] are found in New England about the middle of the seventeenth century, but as yet no records have been found that show them to be related to one another. Christopher Woolley was at Concord, Mass., about 1646, and he and his descendants form the subject of this article. Robert Woolley was at Fairfield, Conn., 1649–1653, and removed to Southampton, Long Island, where his name appears on the list of 1657. He married Ann Woodruff, daughter of John and Ann of Southampton. Their children were: 1. Robert. 2. John. 3. Joseph. 4. Ann. 5. Elizabeth. 6. Phœbe. 7. Mary. 8. Hannah.[†] Emanuel Woolley was on the list of freeman at Newport, R. I., in 1655, and in 1667 he was "ordered to repair arms." He received a grant of land in Monmouth, N. J. He was a member of the Society of Friends. He married Elizabeth ———. Their children were: 1. Adam, born in Mar. 1654; married Mary ———. 2. Edward, born in Dec. 1655; married Leilia ———. 3. Elizabeth (twin), born in Nov. 1657. 4. Mary (twin), born in Nov. 1657. 5. John, born in Oct. 1659; married Mary Potter. 6. William, born 15 Sept. 1662. 7. Ruth, born 12 Oct. 1664; married John Tucker. 8. Grace, born in Apr. 1666. 9. Joseph, born in May 1668; died in 1691.[‡]

1. CHRISTOPHER^{1} WOOLLEY, of Concord, Mass., weaver, died 28 Jan. 1700/1. He married first, 26 Feb. 1646/7 (Concord records), URSILLA WODELL, who died 13 June 1674; and secondly, 10 Apr. 1677, MARY HOW, who died 26 Dec. 1695, widow of William of Concord.

He owned land adjoining William Taylor and John Smedley in the east quarter of the town, which he sold to Joshua Brooks in 1663 (Middlesex Deeds, vol. 9, page 183). When Richard Griffin of Concord died, 5 Apr. 1661, he left "40 shillings in cloas to Christopher Woolley," and owed said Christopher Woolley two hundred pounds; and these facts apparently contradict the statement made by Savage (Genealogical Dictionary, vol. 2, page 314) that Richard Griffin gave to Christopher Woolley most of his property.

*The birth dates of seven of Christopher Woolley's children are not found in the Concord records; but the records of all the marriages of these children have been found, and proof that they were brothers and sisters is furnished by wills or settlement of estates. The following paper (Massachusetts Archives, vol. 69, p. 134) contains the only known proof that Thomas Woolley was in Concord as a youth.

"To the Hon'le Gov'r and Councill now sitting in Boston, June 28 1677. The request of the Millitia of the Towne of Concord Humbly be seecheth that the Millitia receiving a warrant from the worthy Major Gookin to impress four men for the service of the country; and being informed only to scout about Chelmsford, and the millitia not being able to obtaine those persons that were intended and desired, they sent four youths promising to return them within one week after they went; but so soone as they came to Chelmsford, they were conducted to Black Point where they now remaine. Our humble request to your Honor, therefore, is that you will please to consider how unfitt those youth are for their Country's service, namely: Samuel Stratton, John Wheat, John Ball and Thomas Woolley, and that they may be dismissed from the said service, and so returned; and so shall we ever pray for your Honor & C'l.

[Signed] Timothy Wheeler

In the name of the Millitia."

As Samuel Stratton was born 5 Mar. 1660/1 and John Ball was born 15 Aug. 1660, it is assumed that Thomas Woolley must have been of about the same age. He did not marry until 14 Dec. 1697, and was then, accordingly, thirty-six or thirty-seven years old, and died, therefore, at the age of about fifty. His estate was settled in 1721.

STILLWELL VOL. V

The below from the above-mentioned volume is included for information as to Robert Woolley, our ancestor. This was apparently all the information Stillwell had on said Robert Woolley at the time.

The Woolleys of Monmouth County, N.J. are descendants of Emmanuel Woolley, who was no relation to our Robert Woolley. There is a complete history of the Emmanuel Woolley family in the above-mentioned volume.

'The Documentary History of New York, Albany, 1850, gives the following information concerning persons of the name of Woolley: In 1683, there lived in Southampton, L.I., Robert and John Woolley, spelling the name with only one 'L'(?) In 1698, the census of Southampton shows Robert, John and Joseph Wooley; also Ann, Elizabeth, Hannah, Phebe and Mary Woolley. Vol. 1, page 248, makes mention of John Woolley, in 1673, and H. Onderdonk's History of Roslyn and Hempstead, L.I., speaks of John Woolley, Sr., as marshal and constable, Apr. 1, 1686. He probably was father of the John Woolley who married July 6, 1728, Hannah Allen, both being of Great Neck or Hempstead, L.I.

Robert Woolley, first of Fairfield, Mass., (?? Conn.) and from 1653 to 1683 of Southampton, L.I. was son of Robert Woolley and Theckla Pemberton, his wife of Hertfordshire, England. Baptized at St. Albans, Aug. 2, 1615, he emigrated to this country, in 1639, and was the ancestor of the Woolleys of Springfield, Essex (Now Union Co., N.J. (??)
His sister Ellen Woolley, baptized Oct. 15, 1611, was mentioned in the will of James Williams, citizen and merchant tailor, London, Sept. 7, 1620, as his god-daughter, while in the will of Roger Pemberton, of St. Albans, Hertfordshire, she is called his granddaughter, Robert Woolley is called his son-in-law, and Theckla, his daughter, is spoken of as the wife of Robert Woolley. This is seen from 'Genealogical Gleanings in England by Henry F. Waters' as published in the New England Register Volume 43.'

Miscellaneous Notes.

New England Historical and Genealogical Register
Vol 75 p 29-41

Three men named Woolley found in New England about the middle of the 17th Century, but no records have been found to show that they were related to one another. All from England.

1. Christopher Woolley was at Concord, Mass. about 1646.

✓ 2. Emanuel Woolley, Newport, R. I. a freemen, 1653 Emigrated to Shrewsbury, Monmouth Co. New Jersey in 1670 and evidently started the Woolley clan around Red Bank. Genealogy of these Woolleys by John Cox on file New York library.

3. Robert Woolley was at Fairfield, Conn. 1639-1653 and removed to Southampton, Long Island where his name appears on the list of 1657. For this family see Howell's history of Southampton - Second Edition-1887 pages 408-409

Genealogical Dictionary of first settlers of New England - Savage

Robert Woolley, Fairfield 1649-1653 - removed aft to parts unknown.

Historical and Genealogical Miscellany
Stillwell Vol V

Shows early history of Robert Woolley and English background.

M. G. Morgenstern wrote a thesis on Great Neck history, and refers to many town records, Hempstead and North Hempstead and many books and other information. On file Jamaica public library.
She states that many indentures and wills concerning Allens, Woolleys, Hewletts etc bearing dates throughout the 1700's are on file at the Great Neck library. Probably now sent to Nassau County Historical Society.

Map of the Village of Jamaica 1842, shows the following Woolleys owners of property on Jamaica Avenue-Samuel T, William H, Phillip H. On file Jamaica library.

Most of the Woolleys were Episcopalians. Hobart S. Woolley married Phebe Ann Brinkerhoff of Dutch ancestry and then went to the Dutch Reformed church.

Several Woolleys are buried on the original farm where the ferry was located, Great Neck, N.Y. Some at Christ Church, Manhasset, Some at Reformed church Manhasset. Some at Grace Episcopal church, Jamaica, N.Y,

3 Nov. 1732 Will of Lydia Woolley, a widow, proved 20 Jul. mentioned:
daus: Ruth, Content Bills; Hannah Little; & deceased dau., Elizabeth Stelle, wife of Gabriel Stelle; sons, Adam & George

ELIZABETH WOOLLEY b in RI, NE 28 May 1685 mar Gabriel STELLE.

(she dau Edward Woolley, son of Emmanuel Wooley who mar Lydia, dau. George & Hannah Allen, b June 1660 -- also see Quaker Meetings at Shrewsbury)

Elizabeth WOOLLEY, dau of Edward Woolley, (3) born 28 May 1685 died 29 Jul. 1723 mar. Gabriel, son of Poncent (Pontius ?) & Eugenie (Legrau) Stelle, b. 1685; & bapt. in the early days of the French Church in New York City. His parents were French Huguenots who emigrated from the Southwestern part of France, about 1665, settling first on Staten Island from which they removed to New York. His ___ brother, Benjamin Stelle, removed to Middlesex County and settled at Pis__way while Gabriel came to Monmouth County where he remained until after the death of his first wife and about 1728 removed to Middlesex County where he received patent for a ferry that should run from South Amboy to Staten Island, stopping at Perth Amboy.

Gabriel Stelle married for his 2nd wife, Margaret, dau. of Thomas Gordon and ___ (Mudie) Gordon and widow of Lewis Carre, and by her had son, Thomas Gordon Stelle who was bapt. as shown on the records of Christ Ch., Shrewsbury, ___ 24, 1734, and a dau. Margaret Stelle, who mar. about 1755 Andrew ___ersly.

His 1st wife and 2 of their children are bur. in Christ Churchyard, the stones ___ed to their memory being placed in the yard close against the building line of the church as is also another stone to the memory of Elizabeth Stelle, which is in such a condition that the epitaph has been compleely lost; it probably was that of the daughter, Elizabeth, who was bapt. as an adult at Allentown.

MONMOUTH COUNTY

Tradition, and it is a most unlikely one, says that Thomas and Geoffrey Woolley came from England or Wales, (about 1620?), and settled in New Jersey. One of the brothers went to Cuba or the west, and never was heard from. While from the other brother the family has been supposed to descend.

The Documentary History of New York, Albany, 1850, gives the following information concerning persons of the name of Woolley: In 1683, there lived at Southampton, L. I., Robert and John Wooley, spelling the name with only one "l." In 1698, the census of Southampton shows Robert, John and Joseph Wooley; also Ann, Elizabeth, Hannah, Phebe, and Mary Woolley. Vol. 1, page 248, makes mention of John Woolley, in 1673, and H. Onderdonk's History of Roslyn and Hempstead, L. I., speaks of John Woolley, Sr., as marshal and constable, Apr. 1, 1686. He probably was father of the John Woolley who married July 6, 1728, Hannah Allen, both being of Great Neck or Hempstead, L. I.

Robert Woolley, first of Fairfield, Mass., and from 1653 to 1683, of Southampton, L. I., was son of Robert Woolley and Theckla Pemberton, his wife, of Hertfordshire, England. Baptised at St. Albans, Aug. 2, 1615, he emigrated to this country, in 1639, and was the ancestor of the Woolleys of Springfield, Essex (now Union) Co., N. J. His sister, Ellen Woolley, baptised Oct. 15, 1611, was mentioned in the will of James Williams, citizen and merchant tailor, London, Sep. 7, 1620, as his god-daughter, while in the will of Roger Pemberton, of St. Albans, Hertfordshire, she is called his granddaughter, Robert Woolley is called his son-in-law, and Theckla, his daughter, is spoken of as the wife of Robert Woolley. This is seen from Genealogical Gleanings in England, by Henry F. Waters, as published in the New England Register, volume 43.

From Progress and Public Processions of Queen Elizabeth, Vol. 3, page 81, is derived the following: Sir John Woolley, born Shropshire, graduated Oxford 1553; traveled beyond the seas 1557; became Secretary to Queen Elizabeth 1568; made Prebendary of the Church of Welles 1569; died 1595; buried in St. Paul's, London. His son, Francis Woolley, died 1611. Sir John married, second, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir William More.

Whether there is any relationship between any of the foregoing Woolleys and Emmanuel Woolley, of Newport, Rhode Island, has yet to be discovered. Thus far the only thing we know is that the names are the same.

From Austin's Genealogical Dictionary we learn that Emmanuel Woolley was made freeman of Newport, May 17, 1653; May 13, 1667, he and others skilled therein were ordered to repair all arms brought to them by the Captain or Lieutenant of the Train Band of Newport; taxed in 1680, £1-7-11; and May 4, 1681, the Assembly remitted his forfeiture of a bond of recognizance for good behavior and appearance at the last General Court of Trials, he not appearing.

The statement has been made that he came to Shrewsbury, N. J., in 1660, but the sole evidence of that, if true, lies in the fact that, to the extent of three pounds, he was one of the contributors for the purchasing of lands from the Indians. No land was patented to him; there is no warrant for any survey of land in his name; and no deed is of record in which he appears as grantor. It is, therefore, likely that the share of land he purchased was given or sold to one of his sons.

Of his children, nine in number, all except the oldest and youngest sons came to Monmouth Co., N. J., Edward settling, at Manasquan, John, at Poplar, where he had many acres of lands adjoining those of his father-in-law, Thomas Potter, and William Woolley, at Shark River.

8 Ruth Woolley born Oct. 12, 1664; married, Apr. 25, 1688, John Tucker.
9 Grace Woolley born April, 1666; married Jacob Lippincott.
10 Joseph Woolley born May, 1668; died Feb. 4, 1691.

3 EDWARD WOOLLEY, son of Emmanuel Woolley, 1, would appear to have been of Rhode Island when his first child was born, and not to have come to Monmouth Co., N. J., until about 1687, when his name is first mentioned there in a deed from William Chamberlain, Nov. 19, 1687, for his one-half interest in a tract of one hundred acres of land that had been patented to himself and Robert West, and for which a patent was duly issued, in their rights, Mch. 22, 1687/8, to Edward Woolley, of Shroesberry. He married Lydia, daughter of George and Hannah Allen, born June, 1660; described himself as a "hatter," in deeds given in 1690, and as a "feltmaker," in deeds of 1701; and signed his will Jan. 3, 1728/9, which is without date of probate. While in the township of Shrewsbury, he seems to have owned land at Passequenecqua, on Rumson Neck, and to have lived at Manasquan.

After living for a time at Shrewsbury, he must have gone back to Rhode Island, where two more of his children were born, in 1692 and 1694, and then have returned to New Jersey, where the balance of his children were born. At least that is the idea to be derived from deeds and from the records of the Quaker Meeting at Shrewsbury.

1692, Oct. 31. John Bowne, of Middletown, owner of one twentieth of one twenty-fourth share of the Province, gave a deed for sixty acres of upland and meadow, at Barnegat, to Edward Woolley, late of Shrewsbury, now of Rhode Island.

1696, Dec. 3. Lydia Woolley signs as a witness at the marriage of her niece, Mary Allen to Thomas French, Jr.

1699, Apr. 7. Both Edward and Lydia Allen are witnesses at the marriage of Joseph Parker to Elizabeth Lippincott.

1699/1700, Mch. 4. Samuel Webb, of the Island of Barbadoes, and wife, Lucy, conveys to Edward Woolley, of Shrewsbury, various tracts of land in Shrewsbury township.

1727/8, Jan. 31. He was one of those to take the inventory of the personal estate of Nicholas Mills.

1728/9, Jan. 3. Will of Edward Wooley, of Shrewsbury, yeoman, mentioned:

> wife Lydia, executrix; second son, Edward; eldest son, Adam; son, George; daughter, Hannah, wife of George Allen; daughter, Content; daughter, Ruth; grandchildren, viz.: the children of Elizabeth, the deceased wife of Gabriel Stelle. Witnesses: Adam Brewer, Joseph West and Geo. Thornborough.

1732, Nov. 3. Will of Lydia Woolley, widow; proved July 20, 1742, mentioned:

> daughters, Ruth, Content Bills; Hannah Little; and deceased daughter, Elizabeth Stelle, wife of Gabriel Stelle; sons, Adam and George.

Issue

11 Elizabeth Woolley born, in Rhode Island, N. E., May 28, 1685; married Gabriel Stelle.

12 Hannah Woolley born, in Shrewsbury, July 8, ...; married, first, George Allen; second, John Little.

13 Adam Woolley born, in Shrewsbury, Feb. 4, 1690/91.

14 Edward Woolley born, in Rhode Island, Jan. 16, 1692; lived at Squan, and had descendants living at New Bargain Mills, in 1895.

15 Content Woolley born, in Rhode Island, Nov. 9, 1694; married, first, Thomas Bills; second, Isaac Hance.

16 George Woolley born, in Shrewsbury, Dec. 14, 1697. 31 in Mothers will 17 William Woolley born, in Shrewsbury, Feb. 22, 1698; died, in Shrewsbury, 6 day of . . . . month 17 . . . .; not mentioned in the will of his father.

18 Ruth Woolley born, in Shrewsbury, June 8, 170'.

19 Lydia Woolley born, in Shrewsbury, Mch. 23, 1702/3; not mentioned in the will of her father.

4 ELIZABETH WOOLLEY, daughter of Emmanuel Woolley, 1, born November, 1657; married Daniel, son of Robert and Avis Stanton, born 1648, of Newport, R. I. Absolute proof of this connection is shown in the Journal of Daniel Stanton, the distinguished Quaker preacher, where, under the date of "Six month, 1674," he wrote:

12 HANNAH WOOLLEY, daughter of Edward Woolley, 3, born July 8, 1687 or 1688; married, first, George, son of Caleb and Elizabeth (Sissons) Allen, her first cousin, born July 19, 1678; died 1728; second, between Jan. 3, 1728/9 and Nov. 3, 1732, John Little, died 1750 or 1751.

She was called "Hannah, the wife of George Allen," in the will of her father, Jan. 3, 1728/9, and "Hannah Little," in the will of her mother, Nov. 3, 1732.

1717, Feb. 28. George Allen is called brother-in-law, by Edmund Lafetra in his will, and is appointed as one of the executors.

1728/9, Jan. 7. Will of George Allen, of Shrewsbury, blacksmith; proved Mch. 24, 1728/9, mentioned:

wife, Hannah; eldest son, William Allen; second son, Daniel, not yet twenty-one years of age; third son, Richard Allen; fourth son, Matthew Allen; sixth son, James Allen; fifth son, Joseph Allen; eldest daughter, Lydia; second daughter, Mary; youngest daughter, Abigail.

Executors: wife, and William Leeds, Esq., of Middletown. Witnesses: Thomas Glenrae [Gleane], Pontius Stelle, Geo. Thornborough.

1750, Jan. 14. Will of John Little, with codicil dated Feb. 12, 1750/1; proved Mch. 8, 1750, mentioned:

wife, Hannah; son, John Little, Jr., and his daughter, Isabella; son, Thomas, deceased, and his daughter, Isabella.

Executors: John Anderson and David Rhea. Witnesses: Joseph Potter, Andrew McDowell, John Nathan Hutchins.

James Allen born Feb. 7, 1725/6; married, by license dated Feb. 2, 1747/8, Catherine Newman.

13 ADAM WOOLLEY, son of Edward Woolley, 3, born, in Shrewsbury, Feb. 4, 169(0), may possibly have married for his second wife, by license dated Oct. 13, 1742, Ruth Hays, widow; both being of Monmouth; Abraham Russell being surety on the bond, although there is nothing to indicate that this was not his son, Adam, Jr.

1714, Sep. 14. His name is mentioned in the long list of debtors to the estate of John Bowne.

1723, Apr. 8. Adam Woolley was one of those called debtors in the inventory of the estate of William Gifford.

His name appears on the index of the old Holmes' account book which included accounts opened as early as 1730.

1728/9, Jan. 22. Adam Woolley, William Kneeburn and Samuel Leonard were the witnesses to the will of Joseph Stout, of Shrewsbury.

The name of Adam Woolley does not appear on the Shrewsbury tax list for 1759, while that of Adam Woolley, Jr., does; an indication that the elder had died prior to this date.

Lydia Bills married, by license dated May 15, 1739, Moses Mount; died 1748.

Elizabeth Bills born 1723; married, first, by license dated Aug. 17, 1745, Samuel, son of John and Naomi (Edwards) Corlies; second, by license dated, Sep. 20, 1749, Thomas Cox.

16 GEORGE WOOLLEY,* son of Edward Woolley, 3, born, in Shrewsbury, Dec. 14, 1697; married . . . .

1728/9, Jan. 3. Named in the will of his mother, together with her eldest son Adam, while William Woolley, another son, is not mentioned.

*1689, Sep. 24. The name of George Woolley or 'Woodley' appears in Court proceedings versus Thomas Wainright, in Freehold Deeds,, "B," page 90. But seemingly this must be a mistake in the recording, for there does not appear to have been anyone of the name otherwise. Perhaps, it was George Woolsey, for such a man is referred to, in 1699, as bounding property sold by the agent of the West Jersey Society, above the Falls of the Delaware.

1716, Apr. 9. He is named in the inventory of the estate of John Bowne, as one of his debtors.

1723, Apr. 13. Audit of the account of Manuel Woolley in the estate of William Mellon.

Emmanuel Woolley named in the index of the old Holmes' account book, which contained accounts of some persons as early as 1730.

1736, Jan. 6. Emmanuel and Ruth Woolley, the father and mother of the bride, and Margaret Woolley, her sister, were witnesses at the marriage of William Brinley, Jr., to Koziah Woolley, both of Shrewsbury, at the house of Emmanuel Woolley, in Shrewsbury.

1740, Dec. 12. Emmanuel Woolley was a witness of the marriage of Thomas Lippincott to Hannah Woolley.

1746, Aug. 28. Stephen Woolley and Ruth Tucker, both of Shrewsbury, were married, at the house of James Tucker, in Shrewsbury, and the witnesses signing in the right hand column were James Tucker, Leah Tucker, Emmanuel Woolley and Ruth Woolley, not Ruth Tucker as it has been put in print heretofore.

1760, 5mo., 21. John Woolley and Sarah, his wife, convey to Richard Bills, blacksmith, [her brother-in-law], all of Shrewsbury, one quarter part of the land late belonging to Richard Rundals, of said Shrewsbury, father of said Sarah, and left by him to his four daughters.

1768, Dec. 20. ~~Joseph Potter~~ and Abigail, his wife, in a mortgage they gave, refer to land that was "Thomas Woolley's deceased, now belonging to his eldest son John Woolley, Jr."

1776, 2mo., 16. John Woolley and Sarah, his wife, join in a deed as grantors.

1801, Apr. 1. Nathan Woolley, yeoman, and Zilpah, his wife deed land, in Shrewsbury, to Joseph King, "which my father purchased of Thomas Woolley, on the North side of Hog Swamp . . . . the said Nathan being only son and heir to his father, John, deceased."

Freehold deeds "A-2," page 109, shows Nathan Woolley and Zilpah, his wife, conveying land that had been "returned to Thomas Woolley, Aug. 14, 1747," as by the Records at Perth Amboy, "S-2," page 203.

MONMOUTH COUNTY

Tradition, and it is a most unlikely one, says that Thomas and Geoffrey Woolley came from England or Wales, (about 1620?), and settled in New Jersey. One of the brothers went to Cuba or the west, and never was heard from. While from the other brother the family has been supposed to descend.

The Documentary History of New York, Albany, 1850, gives the following information concerning persons of the name of Woolley: In 1683, there lived at Southampton, L. I., Robert and John Wooley, spelling the name with only one "l." In 1698, the census of Southampton shows Robert, John and Joseph Wooley; also Ann, Elizabeth, Hannah, Phebe, and Mary Woolley. Vol. 1, page 248, makes mention of John Woolley, in 1673, and H. Onderdonk's History of Roslyn and Hempstead, L. I., speaks of John Woolley, Sr., as marshal and constable, Apr. 1, 1686. He probably was father of the John Woolley who married July 6, 1728, Hannah Allen, both being of Great Neck or Hempstead, L. I.

Robert Woolley, first of Fairfield, Mass., and from 1653 to 1683, of Southampton, L. I., was son of Robert Woolley and Theckla Pemberton, his wife, of Hertfordshire, England. Baptised at St. Albans, Aug. 2, 1615, he emigrated to this country, in 1639, and was the ancestor of the Woolleys of Springfield, Essex (now Union) Co., N. J. His sister, Ellen Woolley, baptised Oct. 15, 1611, was mentioned in the will of James Williams, citizen and merchant tailor, London, Sep. 7, 1620, as his god-daughter, while in the will of Roger Pemberton, of St. Albans, Hertfordshire, she is called his granddaughter, Robert Woolley is called his son-in-law, and Theckla, his daughter, is spoken of as the wife of Robert Woolley. This is seen from Genealogical Gleanings in England, by Henry F. Waters, as published in the New England Register, volume 43.

From Progress and Public Processions of Queen Elizabeth, Vol. 3, page 81, is derived the following: Sir John Woolley, born Shropshire, graduated Oxford 1553; traveled beyond the seas 1557; became Secretary to Queen Elizabeth 1568; made Prebendary of the Church of Welles 1569; died 1595; buried in St. Paul's, London. His son, Francis Woolley, died 1611. Sir John married, second, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir William More.

Whether there is any relationship between any of the foregoing Woolleys and Emmanuel Woolley, of Newport, Rhode Island, has yet to be discovered. Thus far the only thing we know is that the names are the same.

From Austin's Genealogical Dictionary we learn that Emmanuel Woolley was made eman of Newport, May 17, 1653; May 13, 1667, he and others skilled therein were lered to repair all arms brought to them by the Captain or Lieutenant of the Train nd of Newport; taxed in 1680, £1-7-11; and May 4, 1681, the Assembly remitted his feiture of a bond of recognizance for good behavior and appearance at the last General urt of Trials, he not appearing.

The statement has been made that he came to Shrewsbury, N. J., in 1660, but the e evidence of that, if true, lies in the fact that, to the extent of three pounds, he was of the contributors for the purchasing of lands from the Indians. No land was tented to him; there is no warrant for any survey of land in his name; and no deed is record in which he appears as grantor. It is, therefore, likely that the share of land purchased was given or sold to one of his sons.

Of his children, nine in number, all except the oldest and youngest sons came to onmouth Co., N. J., Edward settling, at Manasquan, John, at Poplar, where he had ny acres of lands adjoining those of his father-in-law, Thomas Potter, and William olley, at Shark River.

Emmanuel Woolley married Elizabeth . . . . . , and had FSBEL

3 EDWARD WOOLLEY, son of Emmanuel Woolley, 1, would appear to have en of Rhode Island when his first child was born, and not to have come to Monmouth ., N. J., until about 1687, when his name is first mentioned there in a deed from Wilm Chamberlain, Nov. 19, 1687, for his one-half interest in a tract of one hundred res of land that had been patented to himself and Robert West, and for which a patent s duly issued, in their rights, Mch. 22, 1687/8, to Edward Woolley, of Shroesberry. married Lydia, daughter of George and Hannah Allen, born June, 1660; described nself as a "hatter," in deeds given in 1690, and as a "feltmaker," in deeds of 1701; d signed his will Jan. 3, 1728/9, which is without date of probate. While in the township of Shrewsbury, he seems to have owned land at Passequenecqua, on Rumson Neck, d to have lived at Manasquan.

After living for a time at Shrewsbury, he must have gone back to Rhode Island, ere two more of his children were born, in 1692 and 1694, and then have returned to ew Jersey, where the balance of his children were born. At least that is the idea to be derived from deeds and from the records of the Quaker Meeting at Shrewsbury.

1692, Oct. 31. John Bowne, of Middletown, owner of one twentieth of one twenty-fourth share of the Province, gave a deed for sixty acres of upland and meadow, at Barnegat, to Edward Woolley, late of Shrewsbury, now of Rhode Island.

1696, Dec. 3. Lydia Woolley signs as a witness at the marriage of her niece, Mary Allen to Thomas French, Jr.

1699, Apr. 7. Both Edward and Lydia Allen are witnesses at the marriage of Joseph Parker to Elizabeth Lippincott.

1699/1700, Mch. 4. Samuel Webb, of the Island of Barbadoes, and wife, Lucy, convey to Edward Woolley, of Shrewsbury, various tracts of land in Shrewsbury township.

1727/8, Jan. 31. He was one of those to take the inventory of the personal estate of Nicholas Mills.

1728/9, Jan. 3. Will of Edward Wooley, of Shrewsbury, yeoman, mentioned:

wife Lydia, executrix; second son, Edward; eldest son, Adam; son, George; daughter, Hannah, wife of George Allen; daughter, Content; daughter, Ruth; grandchildren, viz.: the children of Elizabeth, the deceased wife of Gabriel Stelle. Witnesses: Adam Brewer, Joseph West and Geo. Thornborough.

1732, Nov. 3. Will of Lydia Woolley, widow; proved July 20, 1742, mentioned:

daughters, Ruth, Content Bills; Hannah Little; and deceased daughter, Elizabeth Stelle, wife of Gabriel Stelle; sons, Adam and George

4 ELIZABETH WOOLLEY, daughter of Emmanuel Woolley, 1, born November, 1657; married Daniel, son of Robert and Avis Stanton, born 1648, of Newport, R. I. Absolute proof of this connection is shown in the Journal of Daniel Stanton, the distinguished Quaker preacher, where, under the date of "Six month, 1674," he wrote:

685. Jacob Lippincott, is charged in Monmouth Co., with the quit rents on two ·red and twenty-six acres of land.

687, Mch. 25. Jacob Lippincott has two hundred acres patented to him in Passe- ·cqua.

688, Apr. 25. Jacob and Grace Lippincott are witnesses at the marriage of John ·er to Ruth Woolley, her sister. And the signature of Grace Lippincott, in the hand column, immediately precedes those of Mary Allen, another sister, and of ·y Woolley, a sister-in-law.

1689, Jan. 9. Jacob Lippincott was a witness at the marriage of Robert Ray to ·t Hamton, at the house of John Hamton.

11 ELIZABETH WOOLLEY, daughter of Edward Woolley, 3, born May 28, ; died July 29, 1723; married Gabriel, son of Poncet and Eugenie (Legerau) Stelle, 1685, and baptised in the early days of the French Church in New York City. His ·nts were French Huguenots who emigrated from the Southwestern part of France, ·t 1665, settling first on Staten Island, from which they removed to New York. His ·st brother, Benjamin Stelle, removed to Middlesex County, and settled at Pis- ·way, while Gabriel came to Monmouth County, where he remained until after the ·h of his first wife, and, about 1728, removed to Middlesex County, where he received ·tent for a ferry that should run from South Amboy to Staten Island, stopping at ·h Amboy.

Gabriel Stelle married, for his second wife, Margaret, daughter of Thomas* and ·t (Mudie) Gordon, and widow of Lewis Carré, and by her had a son, Thomas Gor- Stelle, who was baptised, as shown on the Records of Christ Church, Shrewsbury, 24, 1734, and a daughter, Margaret Stelle, who married about 1755, Andrew ·ersly.

His first wife and two of their children are buried in Christ Churchyard, the stones ·ted to their memory being placed in the yard close against the building line of the ·rch, as is also another stone, to the memory of Elizabeth Stelle, which is in such a ·lition that the epitaph has been completely lost; it probably was that of the daughter, ·abeth, who was baptised as an adult, at Allentown.

30 Ann Mary, or Ann Marcy, or Anne Mercy, or Aumarcy Woolley, born in Shrewsbury, Feb. 3, 1702; second intentions of marriage published at Shrewsbury Meeting of Women, May 6, 1723, with Joseph (possibly the son of Ephraim) Allen, born Apr. 1, 1697. He was granted a certificate to marry, by Salem Meeting, Jan. 28, 1722; and they were granted a certificate to remove to Shrewsbury, by Salem Meeting, Feb. 26, 1727.

7 WILLIAM WOOLLEY, son of Emmanuel Woolley, 1, born Sep. 15, 1662; married Anne, daughter of Bartholomew and Catherine (Almy) West. He apparently came to Shrewsbury at or about the same time his brother John did, and before the coming of his brother Edward. And it would seem as though he made his residence in that part of the township which was at Shark River.

1685, July 9. William Woolley and his brother, John, with others had warrant to purchase land of the Indians.

1685/6, Feb. 20. He is mentioned as owning land on the South side of the Manasquan River, and Mch. 22, 1687/8, as bounding lands patented to Frances, the wife of Edmund Lafetra, on the North side of the same River.

1687, Oct. 28. He was a witness at the marriage of Ephraim Allen and Margaret Wardell.

1690, June 20. Nicholas Brown, planter, of Shrewsbury, conveyed land at Shark River to William Woolley, of Shrewsbury.

1690, Oct. 7. Nicholas Brown, yeoman, of Shrewsbury, conveyed land to William Woolley, of Shark River, that was bounded on the Northeast by land of Edward Woolley, and this land also was deeded seemingly to William Woolley by Edward Woolley, hatter, on the 27th of the same month.

1691, May 23. William Woolley, planter, and Anne, his wife, deed land to Stephen Cook, planter, part of which was their's by patent dated Dec. 10, 1681, and part of it conveyed by deed of Remembrance Lippincott, dated Feb. 17, 1684.

1691, September. William Woolley was on a Petit Jury in Monmouth County.

1691, Sep. 23. William Woolley and Anne, his wife, of Shrewsbury, convey to Joseph Lawrence, of Middletown, fifty acres of land, at Manasquan, that had been granted to him July 9, 1685.

1692, Nov. 2. Confirmation made to Gavine Drummond of one hundred acres of land, "in the barrens, where William Woolley and W. West mowed their hay."

1694/5, Feb. 13. John West and William Wooly were fellow bondsmen with William West, of Shrewsbury, and his wife, Margaret, formerly the widow of Ephraim Allen, as executors of the last will of the said Ephraim Allen.

1698/9, Jan. 10. William Woolley, John Tilton, Johanna Grant [Gaunt?] and Abiah Edwards were witnesses to the will of Thomas Webley, of Shrewsbury.

1701, Oct. 17. William and Anne Woolley were witnesses at the marriage of Joseph Lippincott and Elizabeth White, at the house of Mary White, at a public meeting of Friends.

1704. He was commissioned Captain for Manasquan and Shark River.

1707, Sep. 3. William Woolley was a witness when his nephew, Thomas Woolley, married Patience Tucker.

170. ., Feb. 6. John Dennis, David Stout and William Woolley were the witnesses to the will of Robert Drummond, of Shrewsbury.

1717/8, Feb. 26. Leah Bennet, widow and executrix of Thomas Bennet, of Shrewsy, swore to the (undated) inventory of his personal estate, made by William Woolley, in Drummond and Thomas Chambers.

1718, Oct. 11. Richard Stout, Jr., as heir to his brother, David, deceased, with , his wife, convey land to William Woolley, the son of William Woolley.

1720/5, Jan. 11. Will of Priscilla Hearse, of Shrewsbury, widow of Thomas Hearse; ved Mch. 1, 1729/30, left legacies to:

> her brother, Joseph Hickke; her sister, Elizabeth Williams, who has as children Mary and Gabriel iams; her sister, Patience, who has three children; to Mary, Audrey and John, children of Audrey ley; to Elizabeth Webley, Ann and Audrey Chambers; and to Elizabeth and Audrey, daughters of iam and Anne Woolley.
> Witnesses: Edward Faulkner, John Chambers and William Brinley.

The Shrewsbury Quaker Record give the names and dates of birth of all the children dward Woolley and Lydia, his wife, and of John Woolley and Mercy, his wife, but e no corresponding entry for the children of William Woolley. It is natural, there-, to ascribe all the males of this line of the third generation, whose names have been nd, as his children. They are four in number, viz.: Bartholomew, Emmanuel, Peter Ezekiel.

Issue

31 Bartholomew Woolley married Hannah Cook

32 Emmanuel Woolley married Ruth (Cook) Collier

33 William Woolley called "son of William Woolley," in deed given by Richard Stout, Jr., Oct. 11, 1718.

34 Peter Woolley mentioned in the index of the old Holmes' account book, which had accounts as early as 1730.

35 Ezekiel Woolley mentioned in the index of this Holmes' account book, and in the tax list of 1764; married . . . . .

Issue

James Woolley taxed in 1764, as the son of Ezekiel Woolley. Perhaps it was he who married, by license dated Dec. 8, 1761, Sarah Kelley; Tunis Aumack being surety.

36 Elizabeth Woolley left a legacy as "daughter of William and Anne Woolley," Jan. 11, 1720, by Priscilla Hearse. Perhaps she is the same individual as the Elizabeth Webley, also mentioned by Priscilla Hearse; if so, then she married John, son of Thomas and Audrey (West) Webley, her own cousin, both of whom lie buried in Christ Churchyard, Shrewsbury.

37 Audrey Woolley called "daughter of William and Anne Woolley," Jan. 11, 1720; witness to the will of Eliakim Wardell, Jan. 16, 1737.

8 RUTH WOOLLEY, daughter of Emmanuel Woolley, 1, born Oct. 12, 1664; d Dec. 23, 1759; married, at the house of Judah Allen, Apr. 25, 1688, John, son of nry and Martha Tucker, both being called of Shrewsbury, born, according to the iends' Records, at Newport, Aug. 18, 1656; died Sep. 2, 1751.

In 1685, Thomas Potter and John Tucker were charged with the quit rents on e thousand acres of land, in Shrewsbury.

1687, June 14. Peter Easton, of Newport, R. I., conveyed to John Tucker, of East sey, all his rights of land in Monmouth Co.

1687, Aug. 18. John Tucker, of Deale, Monmouth Co., conveyed the preceding rights to Thomas Hilborn, of Shrewsbury.

1688, Dec. 12. John Tucker and Ruth Tucker were witnesses at the marriage of Thomas Hillborn and Elizabeth Hutton; and again, Mch. 5, 1739, when George Nicholson, of Chesterfield, married Hannah Woolley, in Shrewsbury.

1690/1, Jan. 7. John Tucker is mentioned in the will of Jonas Hall, of Shrewsbury, and is made residuary legatee and executor.

1692, Nov. 2. John Tucker is named as one of those bounding property that was confirmed to Gavine Drummond, on Poplar Swamp Brook.

The Tucker family, of Dartmouth, has in its possession a paper given by Patience, the daughter of Abraham and Mary (Slocum) Tucker, and wife of Thomas Woolley, 20, that reads as follows:

> "Shrosbury ye 10th 11m. 1710.
> I acknowlidg that I have Resived that twenty pound Legese that my father gave me: by my Unkel John Tucker. I say Resived by me
> PATIENCE WOOLLEY
> Amos White
> hannah . . . . ."

This receipt may have been the basis for the statement that has been made that

> "Nathaniel Slocum, brother-in-law of John Tucker, is the progenitor of the Slocum family in this [Monmouth] county."

But whether the assertion was founded on it or not, it forms a material aid in disclosing the relationship between the Tucker and Slocum families, and, taken in connection with the signatures of witnesses on the Shrewsbury Quaker Records, indicates, with sufficient certainty for it to be relied upon, that Abraham Tucker, brother to the above mentioned John Tucker, married, Oct. 30, 1679, Mary, daughter of Giles and Joan Slocum; and that their sister, Hannah Tucker, married Nathaniel Slocum, a son of the same Giles and Joan Slocum.

*1689, Sep. 24. The name of George Woolley or 'Woodley' appears in Court proceedings versus Thomas Wainright, in eehold Deeds,, "B," page 90. But seemingly this must be a mistake in the recording, for there does not appear to have been anye of the name otherwise. Perhaps, it was George Woolsey, for such a man is referred to, in 1699, as bounding property sold by agent of the West Jersey Society, above the Falls of the Delaware.

His name appears on the index of the old Holmes' account book 1759. He was taxed in Shrewsbury.

53 BENJAMIN WOOLLEY, son of John Woolley, 23, born 1718; died May 23, 1798; married, first, by license dated Apr. 2, 1750, Catharine Husbands, William Lewes, surety; born 1720; died Nov. 18, 1784; second, Oct. 5, 1789, Hannah, daughter of Gershom and Sarah (Gardner) Bills, and widow of William Jackson, Jr.

Possibly they are buried in the Friends' Burying ground at Shrewsbury. But one has to be careful as regards any positive statement thereto, on account of the unauthorized action of a loyal descendant of the family, himself bearing the name of Woolley, and being one of the few living members of the Meeting. He saw the distressing and objectionable way in which the Burying ground had been allowed to stand, and, obtaining funds for the purpose, had it put in proper order, and granite stones erected as marks of respect to his ancestors, viz.:

John, son of Emanuel Wooley, 1659-1714
Mary Potter, his wife, 1664-1735
John Woolley, Jr., 1690-1772
Patience Lippitt, his wife, 1698-1775
Benjamin, son of John Woolley, Jr., 1718-1798
Catharine Cook, his wife, 1720-1784
Jacob, son of Benjamin Woolley, 1760-1826
Elizabeth Tucker, his wife, 1767-1854

There was not the slightest scrap of evidence existing to indicate that any one of the first six persons mentioned above had been buried in the yard. He has given erroneous dates in some instances. He calls John's wife Mary, when she was generally known as Mercy. And he was absolutely wrong in asserting that Catharine Cook was the wife of Benjamin Woolley, 53, the son of John, Jr., 23. The dates of birth and death of that Catharine, who married this Benjamin, are given correctly, but it was not Catharine Cook, rather was it Catharine Husbands. Catharine Cook became the third wife of Benjamin Woolley, 25, in 1744, and probably had no issue by him, while it was Catharine Husbands, "spinster," who had marriage license dated Apr. 2, 1750, with Benjamin Woolley, Jr., 53, and called "junior" for the very purpose of distinguishing him from his uncle, the husband at that time of Catharine Cook. As proof of the correctness of this position there are the positive facts, first, that the oldest child of this e was born in 1752, or not until eight years after the marriage of Catharine Cook ce; and secondly, that in the Parker family descended from Benjamin Woolley, e is a small book with the dates of death of the parents, and of birth and death children, and this reads:

Benjamin Woolley, died 5mo., 23, 1798.
Catharine Husbands, died 11mo., 18, 1784.

1, May 3. Will of Benjamin Woolley, of Shrewsbury; proved July 25, 1798, ed:

"REDEMPTIONERS" IN NEW JERSEY

The great dissatisfaction existing among the lowly and not infrequently in the middle and higher classes throughout Great Britain, especially where the moral sentiment was opposed to the licentiousness of the day and where many were the subjects of religious oppression, turned the thoughts and steps of many towards the New World, where, from kinsmen and friends, glowing accounts had been written home of the equality of man, his religious freedom and his landed betterment.

How to reach this Mecca was a problem difficult of solution. Shortly a way arose and there was a strange intermingling of the poor and the rich in the emigration. With the development of this country, laborers, of all kinds, were needed and the distressed at home, without funds, sold their services for a term of years, at the end of which, they redeemed themselves by reason of their labor and were discharged, with a modest equipment, from their late employers.

The speculative sea captain, the extensive landholder and merchant, alike, saw the chance for gain and imported this element, indenting each individual in written or printed contracts, of which today a number exist, and which they transferred or "sold" as opportunity arose. The majority of the emigrants were laborers, others came qualified with a knowledge of trades, glaziers, carpenters, blacksmiths, bricklayers, painters, joyners, etc., etc., and the whole were spoken of as "servants."

In addition to the laboring element there were many who did not scruple, though of gentle birth and refinement, to hire themselves out for domestic purposes. Often one who was reasonably prosperous in the Old World, and whose estates had been confiscated, was left with so little that it barely sufficed to "import himself," while his wife and children would come in the same ship as "indented servants." The Redemptioner frequently rose with such rapidity that he was able to purchase the unexpired contracts of the various members of his family and assemble them about him in his own home. Not infrequently the master married his "servant," or the "servant" would marry his mistress.

Hardship was the inevitable lot of all the early settlers and the Redemptioner either suffered or enjoyed according to the worldly prosperity and the gentleness of his employer. There were hard taskmasters, but the slavery was not akin to that of the negro in our South, for the populated portion of the country was small and kindred were not divorced from each other and the term of servitude was often short.

The Redemptioner frequently filled official positions under the government and was conspicuous in organized church work. His social distinction regulated itself promptly, and he likely assumed in this community the same position that he held in his former home. Today, the blood of the Redemptioner is mingled with every good strain that crossed to the New Jersey shore and his descendants can look with pride to his ambition, courage and moral force.

After the first great exodus, 1682-1685, made up entirely of Scotch Protestants, there was apparently some diminution in the numbers which came to this country, and little by little the character of the individual changed, so that in the first quarter of the 16th century, the Redemptioner was an ordinary case of "contract labor," fired by no lofty religious enthusiasm and probably of no social cast. At what time this type of importation ceased I have not ascertained.

The recording of "indentured persons" protected all concerned from infractions of the contract. It was not conceived, however, for this reason, but for the object of securing from the Proprietors such lands as were allotted under the Laws of Concessions, to each settler, male and female, master or servant. Thus it is that the following lists include both.

JOHN E. STILLWELL.

WODROW'S HISTORY OF THE SUFFERINGS OF THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND FROM THE RESTORATION TO THE REVOLUTION

REV. ROBERT WODROW, MINISTER OF THE GOSPEL AT EASTWOOD, GLASGOW, MDCCCXXX
SECT. XII P. 331

Of the hardships of the prisoners transported to America, with Pitlochy, in September, particularly those of the laird of Barmagechan.

Having in the former section given the history of the sufferings of these good people who were taken to Dunnotter this summer, I am now to follow a good many of them to America.

Argyle's invasion being now over, and no more fears from that airt,[?] the council began to weary of the prisoners at Dunnotter, and brought them back to Leith, as we have seen, where another essay was made to bring them to comply with the impositions now put on people in their circumstances; and upon their refusal, they resolved to send good numbers of them to the plantations, and so rid themselves of any more trouble about them. Accordingly, after near three months' severe treatment at Dunnotter, they come to Leith, two of them were left behind as dying men, of which Quintin Dick, so frequently mentioned, was one, and in his remarks formerly cited, he hath some sweet observations upon providence timeing his sickness at this juncture. He recovered in some time, and was overlooked, and got safe home to his own house, and lived some years to reflect with pleasure, and record the Lord's wonderful steps of kindness to him, and his goodness under, and after all those sore troubles he underwent. Not a few who were in the great vault were sick, and allowed horses upon their own charges. The Reverend Mr. Frazer was very infirm and weak, and yet the captain by no means would permit him to have the benefit of a hired horse, as several others had. The foot had sixty-six miles to travel, and their hands tied behind their back with small cords. From Dunnotter they were carried to Montrose tolbooth the first night, from thence to Arbroath, from thence to Dundee, from thence, upon the Sabbath, to the Cowpar of Fife, from thence to Burntisland, and thence to Leith.

The council were pleased to come down to Leith, and sit in the tolbooth there, and spent some time in the re-examination of the prisoners. It was but very few complied with their impositions, and they were dismissed. Others, who were very weakly, and had some friends to intercede, got off upon a bond of compearance when called, as Mr. William M'Millan, who gave bond as above, under the penalty of five thousand merks. The most part of them refusing the oaths, and to satisfy in other particulars, were perpetually banished to America, and many of them were gifted to the laird of Pitlochy, to be carried thither. William Hannah, formerly mentioned, in the parish of Tunnergarth, when brought before the lords, and refusing the oath of allegiance with the supremacy, was threatened with banishment. He told them, that he was now too old to work, or go to war, and he reckoned he would be useless there. Old general Dalziel took him up very bitterly, and replied, he was not too old then to be hanged, and he would hang well enough. That same day, as my information bears, August 22d, the general died suddenly, and William's age and sickness prevented his being carried away with the rest. In a few weeks he fell very ill in prison, and appearing to be in a dying condition, he was liberate, and got home, after very hard sufferings for three years and more.

The names of as many as are come to my hand, who were banished, shall be insert just now. Let me only remark, that such who had not to pay their freight, were gifted to George Scot laird of Pitlochy, who freighted a Newcastle ship, Richard Hutton master, bound for New-Jersey; and all the persons now banished were committed to his care. I cannot give an account of all the names of such as were banished with Pitlochy; . . . . . Several of their testimonies and letters they wrote to their friends toward the end of August are before me; and particularly an original letter, from about twenty-eight of them, dated Leith Road, August 28th, 1685, directed to their friends, too long to be here insert. In short they signify, "That now being to leave their own native and covenanted land by an unjust sentence of banishment, for owning truth, and holding by duty, and studying to keep by their covenant engagements and baptismal vows, whereby they stand obliged to resist, and testify against all that is contrary to the word of God and their covenants; and that their sentence of banishment ran chiefly because they refused the oath of allegiance, which in conscience they could not take, because in so doing, they thought they utterly declined the Lord Jesus Christ from having any power in his own house, and practically would, by taking it, say he was not King and head of his church, and over their consciences; and on the contrary, this was to take and put in his room a man whose breath is in his nostrils, yea, a man that is a sworn enemy to religion, an avowed papist, whom by our covenants we are bound to withstand, and disown, and that agreeably to the scripture, Deut. XVII. 14, 15." They go on to leave their testimony against the evils of the times, and for the preaching of the gospel in the fields and houses, and sign as follows.

"John Kincaid,
George Johnston,
Thomas Jackson,
John Harvey,
Christopher Strang,
Peter Russel,
John Henderson,
John Gilfillan,
James Grierson,
Walter M'Igne,
Adam Howie,
Annabel Gordon,

William Spreul,
Robert M'Ewen,

Annabel Jackson."

Besides those I have before me letters of John Arbuckle, John M'Queen, a letter signed I. D. and K. G. and another signed Janet Symington, all of them banished at this time, with many others whose names are not come to me; we shall just now find some of them among those who died at sea in the voyage. In the same ship likewise were Mr. John Frazer, and that excellent gentleman Robert M'Lellan of Barmagechan, of whom more just now, William Niven in Pollockshaws, with a good many others who had endured Dunnotter cruelties. And it is mostly from Mr. Frazer and Barmagechan's account of this voyage, that I am to frame the following narrative of it. Several others were likewise in the vessel, who retired from their native country to settle in America, as the reverend Mr. Archibald Riddel, whom we had in the former part of this history, and his wife, and several of the relations of such who went over.

The prisoners lay some time in the road of Leith, before all was ready, and sailed the 5th of September. Informations before me bear, that Pitlochy tampered with some of them, particularly James Forsyth, to get money before they sailed, offering for five pounds sterling paid now, to set him at liberty as soon as they came to land. But James answered, he would give him no money to carry him out of his native land, adding he had done nothing worthy of banishment. After they had turned the land-end, the fever began to rage in the ship, especially among such who had been in the great vault of Dunnotter. Not a few of them were sick when they came aboard, and no wonder, considering the barbarous treatment they had met with; besides, much of the flesh which the captain of the ship had provided for the prisoners began to stink before they sailed out of Leith road, and in a few days it was not eatable. In a month's time the fever turned malignant, and few or none in the ship escaped it, in so much that it was usual to cast over board three or four dead bodies in one day. Most of the ship's crew, except the captain and boat-swain, died. Pitlochie who had freighted the ship, with his excellent lady, died likewise, and so enjoyed nothing of the produce of near a hundred prisoners gifted him by the council; and near seventy persons died at sea. I have before me a list of the passengers and prisoners who died at sea. It concerns the design of this history only to record the names of the prisoners, and they are as follows;

"Thomas Graham,
John Smith,
John Muirhead,
Kathrine Kellie,
Thomas Russel,
Thomas Gray,
John Swinton,
William Sprat,
John M'Kenman,
John Hutchison of Wardlaw,
Agnes Cohalh,
Gilbert Monorgan,
William Cunningham,
Thomas Jackson,
Andrew M'Lellan,
John Hodge,
John Ramn,
John Kippen,
James Wardrope,
Thomas Finlater,
William M'Millan,
John Kirkland."

Perhaps several of the passengers might be likewise sufferers, but able to pay their freights; but I have not set them down, for shortness. I find further in the list, Mr. John Vernor and his wife, Pitlochy and his lady, and the lady Aitherny, Mrs. Riddel, Mrs. Eupham Rigg, lady Aitherny's daughter, William Rigg, her son, Mr. William Ged, and Mr. William Aisdale, minister. Notwithstanding of this raging sickness, and great death, much severity was used toward the prisoners, at sea, by the master of the ship and others: those under deck were not allowed to go about worship by themselves, and when they essayed it, the captain would throw down great planks of timber upon them to disturb them, and sometimes to the danger of their lives. We have heard of the badness of their provisions already.

Many were the disasters of this voyage. The ship was at the utmost hazard by the breaking up of a leak at two several times. They had several calms, and some pretty severe storms. The captain, after Pitlochys' death, began to tamper with Mr. Johnston his son-in-law, who now had the disposal of the prisoners; and it was projected to carry them into Jamaica or Virginia, and the master offered to take all the prisoners there from him, and pay him in bulk. It was urged for this, that the markets were much better there for servants than at New Jersey. When they are thus treating, and near an issue, very much for the advantage of the passengers and prisoners, the wind turns straight for New Jersey, and they were forced to sail with it. There they arrived about the middle of December, after they had been about fifteen weeks at sea. At their land-ng many of them were sick; and Mr. Frazer observes, that a worthy gentleman from the vest of Scotland died among their hands as they were carrying him ashore. The same erson observes, that "partly of such who voluntarily offered themselves to go abroad rom the Kingdom of Scotland, and partly of such who were persecuted by banishment, here were upwards of 60 died at sea, whose blood (adds he) will be found in the skirts f enemies, as really, as if they had died at the cross and Grass-market of Edinburgh." Before the prisoners came ashore, it was once intended by Mr. Johnston, to whom Pitochy had made them over, to stop their getting out of the ship, till they should all of hem, under their hand, sign a voluntary declaration, as it was called, that they offered our years' service at that place. But this they would not yield unto; yea, a considerble number of them joined in a protestation against their banishment, with a large arrative of the hardships they endured during their voyage, and formerly, for conscience ake.

When the prisoner's came ashore, the people who lived on the coastside, and had not he gospel settled among them, were harsh enough to them, and showed them no kindess. A little way up the country there was a town where there was a minister settled, nd the inhabitants there were very kind to them. When they had information of the risoners' circumstances, they invited all who were able to travel, to come and live with hem, and sent horses for such as were not, and entertained them that winter freely, and vith much kindness. In the following spring, Mr. Johnston, upon his father-in-law's ift of the prisoners, pursued them, and got them all cited before the court of that proince. After hearing both sides, the governor called a jury to sit and cognosce upon the ffair. They found that the pannels had not of their own accord come to that ship, nor argained with Pitlochy for money or service, and therefore, according to the laws of the ountry, they were assoiled; upon which most of the prisoners retired to New England, vhere they were very kindly entertained, and employed according to their different tations and capacities. Pitlochy proposed to be enriched by the prisoners, and yet he nd his lady died at sea in the voyage. He sold what remained of the estate to pay the reight, and much of the money remaining was spent upon the law-suit in New Jersey. Thus it appears to be but a hazardous venture to make merchandise of the suffering eople of God. A good many of the passengers and prisoners died in the plantations, he rest returned to their native country at the happy revolution,—Mr. Riddel, William Niven and others, and particuarly the laird of Barmagechan . . . . .

ERRATA

In Stillwell's Historical Miscellany, Vol. II, page 380, is an item:—"John Willson, Jr. One tract E. by Grover's brook; N. by Mahoras brook; W. by R. Stout, Sen^{r}.; S. by Jn^{o}: Wilson, Sen^{r}: . . . . . (this tract of land is still in possession of a lineal descendant of this Wilson Patentee).

Another item on the same page: "Tho^{s}. Harbour:—D. 191, conveys one of Step. Arnels 2 Shares, to John Throgmorton, in Middletown, formerly Survey'd, now resurvey'd. N. E. part by Bay & Meadows of Sundrys. S. E. by Ben: Devell; S. John Job & S. W: Jam^{s}: Ashton. W. unsurvey'd & p^{t}: of J: Grover's . . . . . " (this tract is now known as the Old Cherry-tree farm; these descriptions contained in these old deeds confirm the traditional location of the Grover mill; this mill in later years was owned and operated by a man named Irwin and it was called Irwin's Mill prior to its destruction by fire.

Judge Geo. C. Beekman in his book "Dutch Settlers in Old Monmouth" gives the location of Grover's Mill as on Mahoras Brook.

Hoping this information may clear up the errors, I am

Yours truly

Emily L. (Mrs. W^{m} Martin) Thompson.

Incidentally, I trace my descent from Jas. Grover three times, twice on the paternal side, once on maternal side, also am a descendant of John Loofbourrow [sic] who built and operated the second mill in the township at the head of McClees' Creek about 1688, A.D.

Letter to Dr. Harrison McNear, Atlantic Highlands, dated Middletown, N. J., August 29, 1931.

Dr. Stillwell never spared himself time nor trouble in his endeavor to make his statements accurate and for years was close to the old settlers of Monmouth County and their families, by letter and personal contact. The above correction is much appreciated and graciously accepted. Harrison McNear.
